Chairman's Corner

NIGHTCAP CHAIRMAN'S CORNER

It is with a hopeful heart that we welcome a new year. 2020 was hard on all of us starting with changes in how we meet with new technology. There were also members we lost that we won't soon forget. The primary purpose of your Central Service Office is to connect and serve the groups and make sure the hand of AA is always available to the alcoholic who still suffers, primarily through the 24 hour help line. Those selfless volunteers will be especially important in this new year which always brings in a surge of newcomers, but in the wake of a pandemic, I'm predicting a tsunami of not only newcomers, but others trying to find their way back to us. Your continued financial support is especially appreciated now to keep the office functioning in all it's 12 step efforts.

We say goodbye to three board members who served us well and we welcome 3 new trustees with a wealth of collective experience. Please let us know how we can better serve your group or service committee. Our Central Service Office is always looking for ways to expand our circles of love. I am privileged to serve with the board of trustees and our stellar management team, Jim and Virginia, at the office. They are truly our frontline workers.

Here's to 2021! We greet it with hope and the willingness to serve... the rest we leave to God!

Karen M.

JANUARY 2021 | OLDTIMERS!

Doing my best

BY: KATHLEEN A. | PHILADELPHIA, PA.

As the COVID-19 lockdown continues, she stays connected and looks for ways to reach out

During this challenging COVID-19 lockdown, I have experienced a taste of what it's like to be in a remote community. All of our live, in-person AA meetings stopped. There were no diners or coffeehouses for hanging out before and after our meetings. We couldn't visit one another. Does this mean I live in a remote community?

I know our situation is temporary. Access to the abundance of our physical AA meetings at all hours will return. Until then, I have many privileges even during this pandemic. Luckily I have wonderful technical devices for reaching out and receiving help. I can read; I can write; I can listen to speaker tapes. And I have my Grapevine—our “meeting in print.”

I've been sober quite a while now—yet I am still one drink away from a drunk. The practice and experience of relying on God and trying to practice these principles as best I can encourages me to keep the faith—especially now. How difficult it must be for many newcomers during this pandemic. I remember feeling as remote as an island when I was new and for quite a while after.

I try to remember our Three Legacies during this challenging time...

Unity: I am doing my best to reach out to others in our virtual meeting who are having a much harder time than me. I also try to put myself in the shoes of those who, under normal conditions, face barriers to hearing and carrying the AA message. I try to be mindful of the situations that might limit access, of the challenges of members speaking other languages, of alcoholics in nursing homes, of single parents who struggle with childcare, of those who can't find us, and of the loners who need a connection.

I think of prison inmates whose meetings can no longer be brought in by fellow AA members. From my own experience in service, I know how much these members look forward to AA meetings and how much they need them.

Service: I continue to pray to be helpful to the new person. As our cofounder Bill W. expresses in the chapter “A Vision for You,” more will be revealed. God has guided me into service in ways I could not imagine on my own. I just have to stay open to God’s creativity. “Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to alcoholics, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.” My affairs these days also include being mindful and listening to doctors and not putting anyone in danger through my actions. Meditating in the morning opens me in ways to be spontaneously helpful and thankful as opportunities arise.

Recovery: Sobriety is a gift, a miracle. One day at a time, I continue to rely on the God of my experience and understanding. To maintain this relationship and cultivate the AA way of life, I try to stay in fit spiritual condition. I can even be grateful for my shortcomings and failures, which bring me closer to God and others.

My morning prayers and meditation and my nightly review frame each day in the gift of 24 hours without needing to drink. My connection with a power that can keep me sober, especially now, under any and all conditions, gives me a sense of peace.

And on days when that peace is lost, as happens, I can share that experience with others, and maybe help someone else. Staying sober is a life-or-death proposition for me.

Salerno Beachhead, anyone?

Archives: Oral Histories

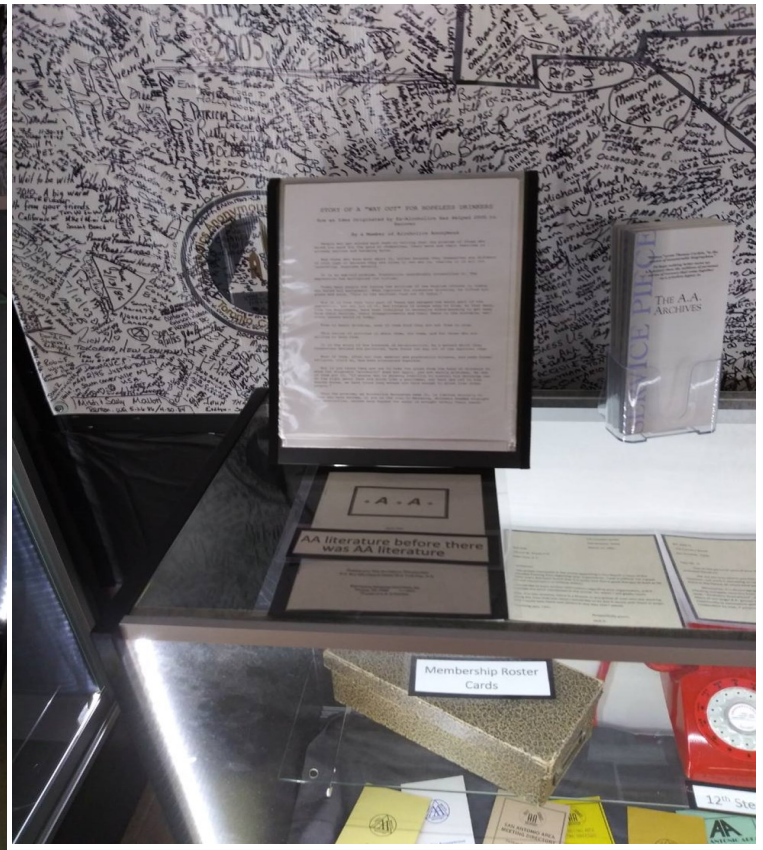

We are ten months deep into a global pandemic. I know; this is not shocking to any of you. COVID-19 has seeped into the fabric of our lives. We wear masks at grocery stores and read countless signs about keeping our distance in public spaces. Even once safe AA has been impacted. Many meetings now take place virtually from our living rooms. For those gathering in-person, many meet outdoors with faces half covered and others sit far away from each other amidst the faint smell of disinfectant.

In one way or another, 2020 has been a year of change and loss for all of us. There has been change in our routines and loss of loved ones and winter traditions. We lost several people this year in our own AA community. Some of their stories went with them; tales of AA history lost to all, and we will likely lose more people—whether to this global pandemic or to time itself. Death will greet all of us at the end of this journey, but it does not have to take our stories with it. It does not have to take our history. We can preserve the laughter your group felt after staying up all night making sandwiches for a conference. We can record the tears your group shed after your meeting place closed. We can detail the anger over the informed group conscience vote you still disagree with. We can capture the words and voices and stories of your old-timers. I know sometimes it is hard to grasp the need for such measures when the lives of those we love still burn so brightly in the spaces we share, but if this year has taught me anything, it is that life is fragile and the time to preserve these stories is now.

One way to do this is through taking an Oral History where we record an interview with someone about their history in AA, preserving their experience, strength, and hope for those who have yet to “sit all the way down” in a meeting. During 2020, the Archives committee has been using virtual platforms and creativity to record stories before they are lost. We would love the opportunity to meet with you and hear the memories of those people you hold dear. For more information, please contact _____.

AND A FINAL THOUGHT:

The program fixes it so we don't have to 'suffer' from insanity anymore; now we can 'enjoy' it!

THINGS WE CANNOT CHANGE

Mary Mac G. passed away Dec 27. She was a Spring Branch Group member for years before starting Seeds of Grace Group. She had celebrated 14 yrs of sobriety this year.

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace!
That where there is hatred, I may bring love.
That where there is wrong, I may bring the spirit of forgiveness.
That where there is discord, I may bring harmony.
That where there is error, I may bring truth.
That where there is doubt, I may bring faith.
That where there is despair, I may bring hope.
That where there are shadows, I may bring light.
That where there is sadness, I may bring joy.
Lord, grant that I may seek rather to comfort, than to be comforted.
To understand, than to be understood.
To love, than to be loved.
For it is by self-forgetting that one finds.
It is by forgiving that one is forgiven.
It is by dying that one awakens to Eternal Life.

December Minutes

Central Service Office Virtual Meeting, San Antonio, Texas for December 2020

Meeting Date: 12-21-2020

Chair- Bruce

Secretary- David A.

Bruce opened meeting at 6:05 PM: Asked for a moment of silence and the Serenity Prayer.

Bruce announced: Asked Virginia to call roll and asked CSOR's to announce any special meetings during holiday season.

Virginia B. called Roll of CSOR's and Board members. Attending CSOR's and Board members reported.

Guest Speaker: Virginia B – There will be an Orientation meeting for incoming CSOR and new board members. Jan. 9, @1:30-3:00. Announcement is in Nightcap.

Bruce asked for approval of the minutes of last month's meeting, motion to approve by Mary and second by Bailey, motion passed.

Board Liaison report: Susan H. – All incoming members attended with current members. Karen M. was elected as new chairperson for 2021. Susan H. thank you for your service.

Financial Report: Don K, Referenced his report the contributions this month have been very generous in both group and personal areas. These contributions will bring us much closer to budget for 2020 and will help us to not use our prudent reserve to make up difference. AA persons has come through with needed report.

Motion to accept budget by Eric and Arts dog, 2nd from Bailey, motion passed by vote.

San Antonio Inter Service, Wanda: No report.

Hispanic Inner Group, No report.

Archive Committee: Doug F. Reported they had a virtual/in person workshop at club 12 December 13, Chris D. spoke, much interest in orals history's and encouraged "Old timers" to call archives, will have a workshop each quarter.

San Antonio Helpline Chair: Virginia B: The helpdesk has volunteers and backup answering calls 24/7. Volunteers are now working from home due to Corvid, answering an increased call volume. Another interesting development the San Antonio courts are now sending appointees to Zoom meetings, really cool so appointees call looking for Zoom meeting to attend.

Interservice Committee: Randy, They have an author scheduled to come in and instruct AA persons on writing their stories so they may be used in the Grapevine magazine. The sponsorship by mail program now has all sponsees receiving the Grapevine. It was suggested the Spring piinic be moved to Fall.

Managers' Report: Jim B: The new website is live. Please take a look. The CSO would love to hear your opinions, suggestions, complaints, feedback to help debug and improve the website. The meeting guide app has some changes, one is that virtual or online meetings are now listed as official AA meetings. The story sales are increasing to areas outside of San Antonio. We still have an issue with emails from website not getting through. Requesting help from members to solve this issue. Thank you for support. Play nice with the other children.

Old business, complete

New Business, Bruce started the elections: Positions are Chairman,
Susan H. nominated Bailey, Eileen 2nd, Bailey accepted and was elected.

Mary P. volunteered for Alternate Chairman and was elected.

Bruce asked for a volunteer for secretary, no volunteers, David A. volunteered to continue with new secretary added to agenda.

Eileen D. volunteered for Alternate Secretary and was elected.

Closed with the Lord's prayer

THANK YOU ALL
