Dear Fellows,

I hope you and yours are healthy and managing well. I have had so many positive experiences with the changes. I am able to attend meetings with people from all over the world.... and attend former home groups with old friends as well. It has been amazing. Just as many I have spoken to; I am also ready to get back to the hugs and face to face. I don't think it will be long now! We continue to provide information on the CSO website for meeting updates. Please let us know as your situation changes.

Please remember that the 7th Tradition has an even greater importance to so many of our groups and supporting committees. Find out if your group has a virtual basket through Venmo or PayPal or if your treasurer has information on alternate options. I know some who are taking checks in the mail. CSO and GSO are supported through sales. They are almost non-existent right now and group contributions are also down. As an alternative, there is a donation button on our CSO web page if you are so inclined to contribute. We would be grateful.

I have to shout out to our team at CSO, Jim and Virginia and the tireless work they have put in during this time. While the office has been closed to foot traffic, they have taken this opportunity to paint, clean, reorganize and inventory the store - going over and above. Your services are so greatly appreciated.

Please note the information that Jim will include about CSO office opening again - with safety precautions in place. We look forward to coming back gradually.

Keep trudging and stay safe.

Tamara

Step 5 is a beautiful step to me. When I took this with full honesty, I was able to feel freedom.

My first two years of Sobriety were hard on me with the constant thought of drinking crossing my mind daily. I was one who, in the beginning, got a sponsor right away and started working on the steps. I participated in multiple service positions with my group and once fully finished with the steps, started sponsoring. Even with doing all of this, the thought of drinking would still cross my mind. Everyone would talk about how their craving for alcohol had gone away. I questioned myself all the time as to why I was still suffering with this.

At two years sober, I started a new journey with a new sponsor. She, of course, started me at the beginning of my steps. We moved at a slower pace and she took me through each step thoroughly. By the time step four came, I felt safe and could trust this woman. While doing step 4, I questioned myself on putting this one thing down on paper to share with her. I had this idea that sharing it with God was enough, I mean, he knows everything about me already, right? If he could forgive me that was all that mattered to me.

I sat with my sponsor and we started my step 5. Once I finished, she asked me if there was anything else. I told her no, knowing that I was still hiding something. A few days later, the thought that I was hiding something continued to cross my mind. I called her and told her I had one more thing that was not on my step four. We sat down and I told her of this one thing that made me think of myself as a horrible human. I believed I would be shunned out of AA if anyone knew. Exactly the opposite happened, she embraced me, and accepted me for who I was. That was the first night I got a peaceful night sleep for as long as I could remember. I truly felt free.

Tradition Five. Each Alcoholics Anonymous group ought to be a spiritual entity having but one primary purpose – that of carrying its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.

The proverb Bill W. uses to introduce Tradition 5 has always rang true to me; “Shoemaker, stick to thy last.” Perhaps it’s because before I sobered up, I professed at being an expert in many things when truly I was a novice at best. I had tried many activities but mastered none, though I’d tell you different. I was excellent at putting up a front, of lying about myself and my life. I tried and failed at being a productive member of society. However, being an alcoholic, that self-centered and selfish person, I mastered that. I understand what it’s like to need to stop drinking but picking up that glass again. I understand the insanity of trying to control everything in my life and driving people away in the process. Yes, I am an alcoholic. Finally, I’m an expert in something! Thanks to the fellowship and the traditions I can now be of service to others. I have learned to be a part of a group. As a group we have the responsibility to stick to the business we know best, alcoholism. As a group member I stick to what I know best, my own experience, strength and hope. It’s a simply worded Tradition that can keep me out of trouble.

In gratitude and service

Tegan T.

Concept V

Throughout our world services structure, a traditional “Right of Appeal” ought to prevail, thus assuring us that minority opinion will be heard and that petitions for the redress of personal grievances will be carefully considered.

The third of our three “rights” laid out in our Twelve Concepts for World Service, the Right of Appeal is about making every effort possible to hear all opinions on whatever issue is before the group.

It’s about hearing all the voices.

But how do we draw out those voices? It’s easy for some of us who have been around a while and are firm in their opinions (maybe too firm, but that’s a Tradition Two discussion). Some of us have naturally loud voices. But what about the quieter member or the one who routinely sits at the back of the room? Theirs may be just the opinion we need to hear.

Concept V asks us to find ways to encourage these voices. One suggested way is to conduct a sharing session (see “SMF-111 How to Conduct a Sharing Session” from aa.org). This type of roundtable discussion is an excellent way to draw out various opinions in a non-judgmental way – and you may hear something that will change your mind! This, to me, is when A.A. is at its best. I have been astonished to hear real insight come from all levels of service experience and sobriety. You never know who your Higher Power will use to carry the message!

A GUIDE TO BEST PRACTICES FOR A DIGITAL 7TH TRADITION

Online meeting spaces make it difficult to “pass the basket.” Some groups have set up digital contribution accounts with services like Venmo, PayPal, Google Pay, etc. to deal with this problem. Now might be a good time to review an essential piece of AA literature, “Self-Support: Where Money and Spirituality Mix.” Each group is autonomous and might consider taking a group conscience on whether digital contributions are an option, and which platform (or mix of platforms) best suits their groups’ needs. But first, why collect 7th Tradition for an online meeting?

Our regular meeting locations still have operating expenses...

Our meetings facilities may rely on our regular rent to help pay their rent, utilities, and employees. Meeting supplies will still be needed when our meetings reopen – coffee, paper products, literature, refreshments. And after an extended closure, we may experience a large influx of people who are motivated to re-join the fellowship in person.

Central Office and the General Service Office still have operating expenses such as...

Websites – which we may now rely on more than ever!

Phone lines, rent and insurance on office space

Utility and other ongoing expenses

Paid Special Workers who deserve our continued support. Their compensation is crucial to their ability to serve us.

Our Districts and Areas and H&I still have expenses

Regular expenses to support the work of committees and events that will take place when the crisis has passed are still there.

Web services support for groups

Expenses for venues for events that have been cancelled may still need to be met, since any income from the event won’t be there to support the pre-payment of reservations, cancellation fees, etc. The expense of re-arranging for venues to reschedule events is very real.

Let’s continue to support these folks during the crisis.

We realize that even though the immediate need for virtual connections is relatively inexpensive, the real expenses of our fellowship continues. Please consider continuing to practice our 7th Tradition and make contributions to the service entities that support your group.

ARCHIVES

History is the past as it is described in written documents. An archive is an accumulation of historical records or the physical place they are located. An archivist locates, assesses, preserves and makes available to current and future individuals records that have been catalogued. In thirty or forty years, when someone wants to know how the fellowship in San Antonio handled the 2020 pandemic, there should be records to look at.

How did your group handle the need for meetings? Were online gatherings available to any drunk or only those with knowledge, a smart phone, or a computer? There is a group I heard about that took shifts sitting outside the closed meeting place just in case a newcomer wandered over. What has your group done to ensure the message was available? These type of actions should be documented and captured as part of our historical record as a fellowship here in the area.

THINGS WE CANNOT CHANGE

— [Cathy P.] —

Cathy P. passed away Friday, April 10th. She had 40 years of sobriety and Marymont Group was her home Group. She would have celebrated 41 years this May. Service will be held at Ft. Sam Houston in the near future.

Lord, make me an instrument of thy peace!

That where there is hatred, I may bring love.

That where there is wrong, I may bring the spirit of forgiveness.

That where there is discord, I may bring harmony.

That where there is error, I may bring truth.

That where there is doubt, I may bring faith.

That where there is despair, I may bring hope.

That where there are shadows, I may bring light.

That where there is sadness, I may bring joy.

Lord, grant that I may seek rather to comfort, than to be comforted.

To understand, than to be understood.

To love, than to be loved.

For it is by self-forgetting that one finds.

It is by forgiving that one is forgiven.

It is by dying that one awakens to Eternal Life.

1940 AA PREAMBLE Alcoholics Anonymous

We are gathered here because we are faced with the fact that we are powerless over alcohol and unable to do anything about it without the help of a Power greater than ourselves.

We feel that each person's religious views, if any, are his own affair. The simple purpose of the program of Alcoholics Anonymous is to show what may be done to enlist the aid of a Power greater than ourselves regardless of what our individual conception of that Power may be.

In order to form a habit of depending upon and referring all we do to that Power, we must at first apply ourselves with some diligence. By often repeating these acts, they become habitual and the help rendered becomes natural to us.

We have all come to know that as alcoholics we are suffering from a serious illness for which medicine has no cure.
