Carl Jung to Bill Wilson

One Awesome Note!!

Out of Evil much good has come to me.

By keeping quiet, repressing nothing, remaining attentive and accepting reality, taking things as they are and not as I wanted them to be, unusual knowledge has come to me-unusual powers as well, such as I could never have imagined before.

I always thought that when we accepted things they over powered us in some way or other. This turns out not to be true at all. For it is only by accepting them that we can assume an attitude towards them.

So now I intend to play the game of life, being receptive to whatever come to me; good and bad, sun and shade, for every alternating and in this way accepting my own nature with its positive and negative sides. Thus everything becomes more alive to me. What a Fool I washow I tried to force everything to go according to the way I thought it ought to be.

Letter from CG Jung.

Acceptance was the Answer

And acceptance is the answer to all my problems today. When I am disturbed, it is because I find some person, place, thing or situation- some fact of my life – unacceptable to me. And I can find no serenity until I accept that person, place, thing or situation as being exactly the way it is supposed to be at this moment. Nothing, absolutely nothing happens in God's world by mistake. Until I could accept my alcoholism, I could not stay sober; unless I accept life completely on life's terms, I cannot be happy. I need to concentrate not so much on what needs to be change in the world as on what needs to be changed in me and my attitudes.

"We found that all progress, material or spiritual, consisted of finding out what our responsibilities actually were and then proceeding to do something about them ... We found that we didn't always have to be driven by our own discomforts as, more willingly, we picked up the burdens of living and growing ... We discovered that full acceptance and action upon any clear-cut responsibility almost invariably made for true happiness and peace of mind."

Other meetings, scheduled or informal, will take place throughout the weekend in the COBO Center in downtown Detroit.

We know many are excited about the International Convention and eager for detailed information. As the time gets closer, additional information about the Convention and Detroit, our host city, will be provided.

This website will be updated as more information becomes available. Also watch for articles in our quarterly news bulletin, Box 4-5-9, which is mailed to the general service representative of every group in the U.S. and Canada listed with G.S.O. and is also posted on the website.

Registration forms will be mailed in August 2019 to all G.S.R.s, central offices, intergroups and international G.S.O.s. Online registration will be available September 9, 2019, on aa.org. Advanced registration for the convention between September 9, 2019 and April 14, 2020 will be $115.00 (USD) per attendee. Registration after April 15, 2020 will be $140.00 (USD) per attendee.
