THANK YOU

Our Weekend in SA w/AA Committee did yet another fantastic job with the conference. This year it was a one day, but still filled with fun, speakers, food, and entertainment. Our office is what it is today because of the hard work of this committee and the support of our groups.
See next month's issue for a final report on the funds the conference contributed to CSO. Next year meet us again at La Villita May 4-6, 2012.

MY HOME GROUP

We would like to run a series of articles about the groups in our greater San Antonio area. These groups are found in the cities and towns of Bandera, Blanco, Boerne, Buda, Canyon Lake, Castroville, Center Point, Comfort, Cotulla, Devine, Driftwood, Dripping Springs, Floresville, Fredericksburg, Gonzales, Hondo, Ingram, Jourdanton, Junction, Kerrville, Kirby, Kyle, Lake Hills, LaVernia, Lockhart, Luling, Lytle, Medina, New Braunfels, Pleasonton, Poteet-Strawberry, San Antonio, San Marcos, Seguin, Selma, Spring Branch, Stonewall, Universal City, Waelder, and Wimberley. Your article should be about a half a page, single spaced, and can be an informative article, historical, or just how you feel about your home group and what it does for your sobriety. Please send your article to CSO, Attn: Char, 8804 Tradeway, San Antonio, TX, 78217, or email to csosa@stic.net.

Serendipity Group: My home group is the best AA Group in Texas, and if you don't feel the same about your group, you are always welcome at the Serendipity Group. We have welcoming warm smiles, hand-shakes and hugs, hot coffee and other goodies. Our sobriety spans from one day to 40 years, where tolerance, patience, understanding and love are exhibited on a daily basis. We are serious about recovery and have fun in the process. God and my sponsor attend Serendipity. These are some of the reasons I like my home group.

by Mike S—Home Group Member

First Things First: What does my home group mean to me? I see them every morning, but sometimes I take for granted they will always be there. These people are my foundation when my world is shaky.....they are my strength when I need extra strength.....they remind me of the path I should be on.....they are my family in sobriety. They are the people I can't start my day without.

We have the lady who makes perfect morning coffee, the man who is the group foundation, the person who speaks with extreme passion for the program and the people with long term sobriety. Then there are the people like me, who wandered in to the group and never left.

There are also the people who come in and out. It is always sad when they relapse and joyous when they return. These people teach me the most. They remind me of how fragile my sobriety is and how important my daily maintenance is.

First Things First is a group of love and wisdom. There are people of all walks of life that seem to mix with no effort. Everyone offers unconditional acceptance and love. I have never known this feeling in any group or organization.

Weekends are always the special meetings. We have visitors from Villa Serena. They offer a whole new perspective to the week's meetings. Monday thru Friday reminds me of the daily growth, Saturday and Sunday reminds me of where I came from.

I am grateful I was given the opportunity to write about my home group. I have so much love and gratitude for these people. I carry them in my heart always. They are my experience, strength and hope.

by Sydney C—CSO Rep and Home Group Member

AA Grapevine
 “Our Meeting in Print”

AA Grapevine is proud to announce their 67th Anniversary this year, on Sunday, June 19, 2011.

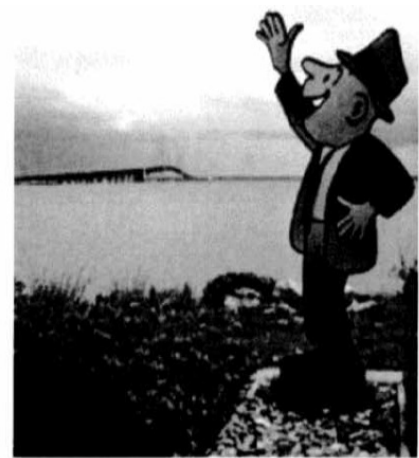

Will your Group be the one who sponsors this event? It’s a great way to get a higher profile for your Group in the AA community and help build enthusiasm and a spirit of service among your current members!

This is a subscription drive and a way to collect old Grapevines to take to prisons and treatment centers and to encourage Groups to have their own Grapevine Rep.

History of the AA Grapevine

The Grapevine was created by six AA members in the New York area—four women and two men. With the blessings of AA’s co-founder, Bill W, they published the first issue in June 1944, just nine years after the founding of AA. A copy of that first issue was sent to every AA Group—about 300 at the time—and to all known AA members in the armed services overseas. An entire page with the heading, “Mail Call for All AAs in the Armed Forces,” was devoted to letters from these members, who began calling the Grapevine their “meeting in print.” The title stuck, and today the Grapevine and LaViña carry it on their covers.

Grapevine’s yearly subscription is $27 for 1 year; we are encouraging all Groups to buy a one year subscription for their Group clipboard and at the end of the year collect all old issues and bring them to the Grapevine Rep at the monthly SAMSO meeting. Contact your GSR to find out when and where SAMSO meets.

But Don't AA Groups Use the Lord's Prayer?

The practice of ending meetings with the Lord's Prayer, once almost universal, is still common in many areas. Where it still exists, the leader normally asks attendees to join in only if they choose to. North American groups today have found a variety of ways to close their meetings. Use of the Lord's Prayer is rare in Spanish groups in the US, and groups outside the United States. Many recite the Serenity Prayer or AA's Responsibility Statement; others use some other informal prayer or phrasing, or simply a moment of silence. And whatever the specific wording, the group conscience makes the decision.

Groups that continue to close with the Lord's Prayer are following a custom established in the Fellowship's earliest days, when many of the founding members found their support in meetings of the Oxford Groups. The practice of closing with the Lord's Prayer very likely came directly from those meetings. At the time, there was no AA literature, and so the founders leaned heavily on Bible readings for inspiration and guidance. They probably closed with the Lord's Prayer because, as Bill W explained, "it did not put speakers to the task, embarrassing to many, of composing prayers of their own." Meeting formats became more inclusive once AA began to spread throughout North America and then the rest of the world, and it became obvious that the program of recovery could cross all barriers of creed, race, and religion.

In Alcoholics Anonymous Comes of Age, the Rev Samuel Shoemaker, one of the nonalcoholic friends who was instrumental in shaping the Fellowship in the very beginning, reflects on the founders' fundamental decision not to define a set of beliefs. He says (pages 263-64): "AA has been supremely wise, I think, in emphasizing the reality of the experience, and acknowledging that it came from a higher Power than human, and leaving the interpretation part pretty much at that...If AA's had said more, some people would have wanted them to say a great deal more, and define God in a way acceptable and congenial to themselves. It would have taken only two or three groups like this, dissenting from one escapable experience and told people to turn their wills and their lives over to the care of God as they understood Him. That left the theory and the theology...to the churches to which people belong. If they belonged to no church and could hold no consistent theory, then they had to give themselves to the God that they saw in other people. That's not a bad way to set in motion the beginnings of a spiritual experience."

A Brief Overview of GSO's eBooks Project

The activities of the General Service Office in support of this undertaking are collectively referred to as the "eBooks Project". This effort is an inter-departmental project of the General Service Office, and will be pursued in phases. The initial phases of the project are as listed below.

Phase 1: This phase is now underway with expected completion targeted for early 4th quarter of 2011. When completed, individuals will be able to purchase the English, French and Spanish versions of the 4th Edition of the Big Book Alcoholics Anonymous and the Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions. Purchased copies of these eBooks may be downloaded and read using the AA Mobile App, on Apple iPhone / iPod Touch devices and on the Apple iPad, in "compatibility mode". Compatibility mode, a feature that allows Apps designed for the iPhone to run on the iPad, will be available.

Phase 2: This phase, when completed, will allow purchased copies of eBooks to be downloaded and read on most Android powered devices and, various eReaders as appropriate terms are agreed to. Estimated completion of Phase 2 is the 2nd quarter of 2012.

What is next? Plans are being made for an eBook presentation to be given to Delegates and all members of the General Service Conference in May 2011. As the project continues to develop, you can expect to receive further communication.

THINGS WE CANNOT CHANGE

Chris W passed away on Friday, February 25, in an automobile accident. He was an active member of Alcoholics Anonymous and had been sober over a year. As his sponsor, I am proud of the work he did and the person he was becoming. He took the third step prayer with me this past week and had begun his fourth step. Perhaps his Higher Power knew Chris' work on earth was finished.
