Dr. Bob and the Good Oldtimers

"Dr. Bob sought to discover and familiarize himself with the spiritual laws in great part through his reading, which was extensive. Dorothy S.M., in her conversation with Bill Wilson, said, "Remember that pile of books he had? Anne kept trying to move them up to the attic. And he had stacks by his bed and under his bed and everywhere else."

The Night Cap

In 1941, the Rt. Rev. Everett H. Jones, rector of St. Mark’s Episcopal Church, put an ad in the local newspapers in which he announced he had information for anyone who had a drinking problem and wished to do something about it. It also appears that Rev. Joseph Brown and Esther E. of Dallas (now deceased) did pioneer work with Bishop Jones. The first meetings were held at St. Mark’s Episcopal Church during 1941-44.

Though not an alcoholic himself, the Bishop’s untiring work, love and concern for the sick alcoholic and his support for AA has led him to be dubbed our “Honorary Alcoholic.”

The Bishop is still active in San Antonio, maintaining an office, where he is never too busy to greet old friends, or listen to new problems, and still occasionally speaks at gatherings of AA when his health permits. “The alcoholic”, the Bishop is fond of saying, “is just everyone else—only so much more so!”

The first AA Group was formed April 11, 1945, and met in the study of Bishop Jones. From 1945 to 1947, AA met at an old grocery store at 4th and Taylor Streets. This group was called the “old 4th Street AA Group.” Later, the group was moved to the 2nd floor location on West Commerce Street, across from the Frost National Bank.

We now have 48 AA groups with in the Metropolitan Area, which includes seven hospital groups, that hold one or more weekly meetings; plus 24 AA groups in the surrounding area that use the CSO. An approximate 600 to 800 AA members attend these group meetings.

FUNDING

Tradition Four Thought For the Day

When making group decisions do we consider the groups around us? Is the decision we make good for all of the groups around us? Will we hurt another group?

Tradition Four (long form)

With respect to its own affairs, each A.A. group should be responsible to no other authority than its own conscience. But when its plans concern the welfare of neighboring groups also, those groups ought to be consulted. And no group, regional committee, or individual should ever take any action that might greatly affect A.A. as a whole without conferring with the trustees of the General Service Board. On such issues our common welfare is paramount.

Did you know that the long form of the Traditions is in your Twelve & Twelve on page 189?

Interview With the Author of "Physician, Heal Thyself!"

Fourth in a series of articles on authors of Big Book stories

DR. EARLE

Dr. Earle's story "Physician, Heal Thyself!" appeared in the Second and Third Editions of the Big Book. Dr. Earle was interviewed by telephone at his home in California by a Grapevine staff member.

So I hugged Bill and got on the plane and went to Asia. I had three or four rest and relaxation periods a year but I didn't rest and relax. I was determined to find something that would bring peace and serenity to me. I spent a lot of time in Nepal and in Indonesia. I spent time in India. I went into these places looking, looking, looking for serenity. I spent two or three years just driving to find out something. I tried meditation, I read the Bhagavad Gita, the Vedas--everything. I went to an ashram on the southeast coast of India, run by a very famous guru and saint. There were about a hundred and fifty East Indians there. I was the only Westerner and they welcomed me. I wore a dhoti--that's a white skirt that men wear--and I wore one like the rest of them did. We all ate on the ground on great big banana leaves over a yard long. There would be food on the banana leaves and you'd make it into a ball with your right hand and throw it into your mouth. There were no knives or forks at all, so I did what they did. I didn't like the taste very much but I did it.

I happened to be there at the time of the Feast of Dewali. Dewali is like our time of Easter; it's the time of renewal. We were awakened on the early morning of Dewali around two o'clock. This ashram was located at the base of a mountain known as Arunachal. Now Arunachal in Hindi means sun, and the myth goes that one of the gods, Rama, lives inside of this mountain. We were told we had to walk around the base of this mountain--which was a ten mile walk--and as we walked, we were yelling to Rama. If you do it in a very firm and believing way, it's said that Rama will come up and wave at you and bless you. I was there, and I did it. We walked around and we were yelling "Rama, Rama, Rama" hoping that Rama would come up and bless us all. They all walked in their bare feet. I didn't, I wore my shoes. Gosh, I was tired. But I walked all night long, the whole distance.

After that event, I came back to my little apartment in Saigon, ready to return to my medical work. I was so beaten because I'd been driving and searching and clenching my fists for almost three years (and I kept writing to Bill about all this, you know). And I came into my apartment and I suddenly collapsed down onto the floor. I lay there breathing kind of heavily and I said to myself, "Oh, to hell with serenity, I don't care if it ever comes." And I meant it. And do you know what happened? All of a sudden the craving to find serenity utterly evaporated--and there it was. Serenity. The trouble was the search . . . looking out there for what was right here.

You know, we only have this given second. There's always now. Once I realized that, serenity became mine. Now--I'm speaking about emotions--I haven't sought one single thing since that day because it's all right here. I often say to people at meetings, "You're trying to find peace of mind out there. I don't blame you, but it isn't out there. It's here. Right here."

2015 International Convention

The 2015 International Convention will celebrate A.A.'s 80th Anniversary, July 2-5, in Atlanta, GA .

Members of the Fellowship are now gearing up for this wonderful event. .

More information is available on the G.S.O.'s web site www.aa.org under the 2015 International Convention section. This Web site will be updated as more information becomes available.

Here are some helpful suggestions for practicing the principle of anonymity in Atlanta:

WHERE?

Please do not take photographs or videos during any of the meetings at the International Convention...

WHO?

Please be considerate so you do not capture images of A.A. members, family members and friends in or around Convention venues who did not give permission and may not wish to appear in your photos/videos...

WHEN?

Please get permission first before taking Photos — and consider having a quick conversation about how you'll protect everyone's anonymity...

WHAT?

Please look around for Convention signs, logos, badges or other A.A. items that, if captured in your photo, might suggest A.A. membership...

WHY?

...because Anonymity is OUR responsibility!

The purpose of the San Antonio Metropolitan Service Organization (SAMSO) is to carry the AA message through coordination of service activities among the districts in the metropolitan service area in accordance with the Traditions and Concepts for World Service of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Treatment Facility Committee—SAMSO

The primary purpose of a Treatment Committee is , to carry the A.A. message to the alcoholic who still suffers.

There is probably no better place for an A.A. member to find a suffering alcoholic than in a treatment facility or outpatient treatment setting

Carrying the message to alcoholics in treatment is basic Twelfth Step work—sharing experience, strength and hope—giving it away in order to keep it!

Some A.A. members may be apprehensive about doing this kind of Twelfth Stepping.

The SAMSO Treatment Facility Committee can help you to understand the basics of handling an AA meeting in a treatment facility. They can help you or your group find a facility that needs AA meetings. The Committee meets every two months: May 3rd, July 6th, September 7th and November 2nd. If you want to contact the Chairperson Mark Z. call the CSO office (210-821-6325) and ask for his telephone number.

To quote Chapter 7 of the Big Book: “Practical experience shows that nothing will so much insure immunity from drinking as intensive work with other alcoholics. It works when other activities fail Carry this message to other alcoholics! You can help when no one else can. You can secure their confidence when others fail.”

Grapevine Committee—SAMSO

Cooperation with the Professionals

CPC Committee SAMSO

The purpose of our committee is to provide accurate information about A.A. to those who have contact with alcoholics in their profession.

We believe that many professionals come in contact with alcoholics as they practice their profession.

AA members may participate by coming to our committee meetings and learn more about the service work we do..

FULLY SELF-SUPPORTING

There are many AA Conferences held around the world. One of the most common misconceptions of these gatherings is that they are AA Meetings. Conventions and conferences are special events which require a substantial amount of money. This Conference is funded primarily through registration fees, plus contributions from individual AA members and AA Groups. The majority of these contributions are in the form of food, drinks and scholarship money. No baskets are passed. Attendance is voluntary and as responsible AA Members, "we pay our own way".

"He stood in the Presence of Infinite Power and Love."

Golf Scramble
For Weekend In SA With AA

This we are holding our Thirteenth Annual Weekend in SA with AA Golf Scramble Thursday May 7, 2015. This event will kick off our 32nd Weekend in SA with AA Conference to be held May 8 & 9, 2015 at the San Antonio Shrine Auditorium.

Come join us and meet some new golfing members in San Antonio. It's a "Scramble" format so all levels are welcome (you do not have to be a good golfer or even know how to play to participate). You do not need to be a foursome to play. The Golf pro can pair you with a partner and assign foursomes based on handicaps. Or, a partner that you wish to play golf with, they will accommodate that as well.

A Note About Handicaps

If you do not know your handicap, write in your average score for 18 holes and the Golf Pro will determine it.
