ATTENTION

The Central Service Office is considering an electronic version of The Nightcap. Currently The Nightcap subscription is $12 per year for a mailed hard copy. We are thinking the electronic version would be $6 per year.

The logistics would have to be worked out to ensure that our newsletter's anonymity is protected, in order to make it available by email. Right now however we simply want to know if there is an interest.

Please fill out the survey on the back page of this newsletter and return it to the Central Service Office by mail or fax. Thank you for your cooperation.

The 65th Annual Texas State Convention local committee would like to thank everyone who made this, so we've been told, one of the best Texas State Conventions! The Crowne Plaza Riverwalk Hotel was eager to compliment our group and extended an invitation back. The speakers were amazing and the committee worked diligently to pull this off. We want to thank our volunteers for their tireless efforts. With your help, our goals were met. Our registration was 1419. We will return the seed money and have a bit left over to distribute among the 4 Areas in Texas. Thank you, again, for your support. See you all in Dallas next year!

*With gratitude,
TX State Convention Committee*

MY HOME GROUP

We would like to run a series of articles about the groups in our greater San Antonio area. These groups are found in the cities and towns of Bandera, Blanco, Boerne, Buda, Canyon Lake, Castroville, Center Point, Comfort, Cotulla, Devine, Driftwood, Dripping Springs, Floresville, Fredericksburg, Gonzales, Hondo, Ingram, Jourdanton, Junction, Kerrville, Kirby, Kyle, Lake Hills, LaVernia, Lockhart, Luling, Lytle, Medina, New Braunfels, Pleasanton, Poteet-Strawberry, San Antonio, San Marcos, Seguin, Selma, Spring Branch, Stonewall, Universal City, Waelder, and Wimberley. Your article should be about a half a page, single spaced, and can be an informative article, historical, or just how you feel about your home group and what it does for your sobriety. Please send your article to CSO, Attn: Char, 8804 Tradeway, San Antonio, TX, 78217, or email to csosa@stic.net.

Broadway Group: I had no idea when I came in March 26, 1993 what it meant to have a home group. I was just nine months sober and Jim S at the Central Service Office had me looking up words as I was answering the phone there. My sponsor believed in newcomers getting involved in service work right away which was why I was answering the helpline at the Central Service Office on Mondays.

As I sat there at Club 12, Ralph T came by and asked me what I was doing looking up these words: recover, recovered, and recovering. He said, "If you want to know about recovery come on over to the Broadway Group." Although my first home group was the Bulverde AA Group, I had moved closer to the Broadway Group and before I knew it I was elected an officer. My first job was to get the coffee and make sure there were cookies for the meeting. This was the beginning of new friendships, and a new AA home. Ralph sat there every Saturday Evening and asked me from time to time if I had found recovery yet or was I still recovering?

A few years later Ralph T died and the group began to talk of ways to honor his memory. So I organized the annual Broadway Group Dinner to honor his memory. Myself and the Broadway Group members have been putting it on every year since.

The fellowship of the group has always been strong and the laughter in the room has made me cheer up on those days when I just didn't think I could make it. My home group still carries the message of recovery to the suffering alcoholic every Saturday evening, no matter what. We keep the doors open. All are welcome if you're looking for that bar room laughter and need the hope that it's going to get different. The group meets at 6720 Broadway, San Antonio, TX 78209. by Carie C, home group member

The Acceptance Group: "Solutions. The meetings focus on the solution." "I like the fact that at almost any meeting there is a wide range of sobriety - from weeks, to a few months, to years. We have that elusive 10 - 20 year group at every meeting." "Friendliness and, as the name implies, acceptance. There is always a hug to make me feel welcome." "Strong sponsorship is the key to strong recovery, and I find that here. Everyone asks if you have a sponsor, and if you don't, they make sure that one is available." "Group involvement in individual recovery. I almost got a resentment because so many people were pushing me to get my fourth step done. Now I know they provided that nagging encouragement because they wanted me to get better."

These are a few of the comments I received from newcomers and longtime Acceptance Group members when I asked them what they liked about their group. The one thing they all agreed upon was the group was welcoming and warm. There are no strangers. I agree. When I attended my first meeting, angry and uncertain and certainly not friendly, members went out of their way to make me feel welcome and I've never forgotten that. After attending meetings around the world, I happily keep coming back. I have been to many great groups in my journey, but I am always filled with gratitude every time I walk in the door of an Acceptance Group meeting.

Acceptance Group meets at the Rolling Oaks Christian Church at Stahl Road and Nacogdoches. Meetings start at 7:30pm. On Mondays we offer the Basics - a lecture series for newcomers, their families, and long-timers alike about what AA is and what it isn't. Thursday and Sunday are open discussion meetings, and Saturday is a book study, currently reading Dr. Bob and the Good Old Timers. Babysitting is provided on Saturday and Sunday. by Doug F, home group member

by Jere J of San Antonio, TX

Continued from the July Nightcap... Back at Grand Central Station I went outside and walked to the Central Post Office and took a picture of GSO's mailbox, Box 459 - not one's usual photo opportunity when visiting New York! But I just had too.

Tuesday was Char's "belly button" birthday and we celebrated by ordering room service for breakfast before she headed off to the Conference and I went with a group of other guests to visit the GSO and Grapevine offices. What a fabulous experience that was! Both offices are simple, beautiful, and serene. We were shown all the work areas and each staff member's office. Staff members are all members of AA and sober at least six years, and they were all out of the office at the Conference. Most amazing was the Archives office at GSO - so many photos and memorabilia from AA's past including printings of the first edition of the Big Book and the typewriter - so small - that Ruth Hock typed the manuscript of the Big Book on.

Wednesday was another great day! The highlight was a trip to Brooklyn. We took the subway from Times Square to Montague and Clinton Streets then walked down Montague St to the Brooklyn promenade overlooking the East River to Manhattan. Then we ate dinner at a favorite local pizza place and walked to 182 Clinton St, Bill and Lois Wilson's home that they lost in 1939.

Then we went on to the Brooklyn Group meeting - second oldest Group in the country after Akron! According to group members, it started at 182 Clinton, moved to St George's church, then a convent, then where they meet now - a Quaker meeting place. The meeting is a step study and that night was on Step Two. It was a good meeting but interestingly there wasn't a Big Book or Twelve and Twelve in sight. Their custom is to not hold hands when they say the Lord's Prayer. The group's window shade of the 12 Steps is their original one and frayed at the bottom. It also says "AS SUGGESTED" under "THE TWELVE STEPS OF AA."

My last couple of days I did mostly New York touristy things. I did not see much of Char all week because she was in committee meetings, workshops, and full Conference from early morning until late at night all week. She got out of her last meeting on Saturday about 10:30 a.m. and we were able to take a bus tour around the city, sitting on the upper deck. It was a beautiful day to see New York that way. We also took a ride through Central Park in a horse drawn carriage and ate a New York hot dog on the street! A wonderful last day! I flew home that evening full of gratitude for this chance of a lifetime.

ANOTHER MEMORABLE TRIP

Jere J's article in the Nightcap reminds me of my visit to New York in 2010 for ICYPAA. On Wednesday, August 25, I also took the subway to Grand Central Terminal and the hour train ride to Katonah. After a short $10 cab ride to Stepping Stones, I got to visit the historic home. It is beautiful and the gardens are even lovelier. Although I had sent an email saying I was coming on the 25th at 1 pm, they were not expecting anyone until 3 pm but fortunately a lady who was working on the grounds called the guide and she came over to show me the place. I bought the Stepping Stones book and carry it in my backpack with me every day. And the walk up the hill to Wit's End was also very nice. I even called our CSO manager and delegate, Char, from the grounds of Stepping Stones. And the lady was nice enough to drive me back to the train station. I'm so glad I got to visit the home of two of the most influential people of the twentieth century. The next day, I got to take a group tour of the General Service Office. It occupies an entire floor of an office building. I got to see some of the people I had met previously when they were here for the International as well as some new ones. I got to meet Adrienne B, a native of Brooklyn and the lady who does PI/CPC. I remember telling her about our PI/CPC conferences. The archives room was lovely and sitting on the table was the big book for the 2004 ICYPAA in Orlando. They showed us where the books are kept prior to being shipped. I felt so lucky and blessed to have had the opportunity to visit the headquarters of our organization. Aside from ICYPAA itself, these were two of the highlights of my trip.
