How can a Group answer the Helpline as a Group service project? What is involved?

There are Groups in San Antonio that take a shift of telephone duty on a regularly scheduled basis. These members will be at the Fellowship Room to share their experience and answer your questions about this Group service. Every AA member and Group representative are invited to attend this sharing session.

I am responsible. When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of AA always to be there. And for that: I am responsible

Happenings In The Fellowship Room

There is a "bucket" of cassette speaker tapes in the Fellowship Room. The tapes are for sharing with AA members. Free. There is no charge for the tapes. We ask that you share tapes you have with others when you can by dropping off a tape now and then. Drop by and check this out. Yes, people still listen to cassette tapes. Currently there are tapes from our founders and other AA speakers.

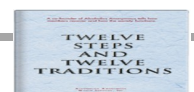

Pamphlets and Literature that are free and available to any Group. Come to the Bookstore and pick up what your group can use to carry the message.

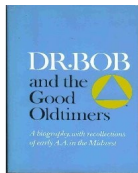

Tradition Eight (long form)

Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever nonprofessional. We define professionalism as the occupation of counseling alcoholics for fees or hire. But we may employ alcoholics where they are going to perform those services for which we might otherwise have to engage nonalcoholics. Such special services may be well recompensed. But our usual A.A. "12 Step" work is never to be paid for.

Did you know that the long form of the Traditions is in your Twelve & Twelve on page 189?

The Family Fun Fair:
Saturday, November 2nd
Objective:
 To create a special day of Fellowship...we aren't a glum lot. We absolutely insist on enjoying life."
 Together we can provide an opportunity for all of the Greater San Antonio Area Groups, individuals, and their families to come together in a fun and relaxed atmosphere.
 We do together what we are unable to do alone. Therefore, we hope that every group, with the assistance of their trusted servants, and by asking their Group Conscience will find a way to participate in this special day of fun, fellowship and service.
 Why not come up with your own idea for a game booth, or a special food booth as a group or individual.
 Let your creative thinking bring US your suggestion. If you and your group could sponsor a booth we have some ideas to help get you started.
 Proceeds from this fundraiser go to support Weekend in AA with SA and ultimately our Greater San Antonio Central Service Office.

A Day In Recovery
Saturday, September 28th
 A San Antonio tradition that is now in its 12th year. Each year this one-day event features a single speaker or speaker team to focus on a particular aspect of AA.
 This year it will feature "The Big Book Experience" with Katie & Charlie P. from Austin. This husband/wife team has a dynamic presentation that is focused on the solution.
 The presentation is conversational, not classroom, and the day provides many opportunities to enjoy the fellowship of others on this happy road. A continental breakfast is provided as well as snacks and limitless coffee throughout the day. Lunch is on your own, and most attendees go in groups to the many restaurants that are located nearby.
 At breaks there are drawings for raffle prizes and time for a chat or a smoke. The lineup wraps up with a question-and-answer session that always proves to be thought provoking and educational.
 Look for the bright yellow flyer in and around the rooms or contact sbocajk@gmail.com and we'll gladly email one to you.
 Discounted pre-registrations ($12) may be mailed to the address on the flyer and are also being accepted at the Central Service Office.

Interview with the Author of "The Independent Blonde"

Fifth in a series of articles on authors of Big Book stories

Nancy F. is the author of "The Independent Blonde," which appeared in the Second Edition of the Big Book. She was interviewed in the Grapevine's offices by the Managing Editor and a staff member.

How did your story get in the Big Book?

We had several writers around and they wrote my story. I didn't write the story--someone wrote it for me. I don't even remember being interviewed. I never thought much about my story, to tell you the truth. I don't even think I knew it was in the Big Book.

So your story was picked because someone knew you?

We all knew each other in those days. Because we were all in one clubhouse.

It was a small world, wasn't it?

Absolutely, and we were all together. In those days, nobody was anybody. Not like today. Nobody had any money, everybody was poor. Everybody was coming back from the war, so nobody had anything really. I don't mean we were hungry, I don't mean that. I had an apartment and so forth. But we were all sort of starting from scratch. We used to go down to Greenwich Village and eat for fifty cents by candlelight.

There was great camaraderie in the clubhouse. It was on Ninth Avenue and Forty-First Street. Nobody was on Ninth Avenue and Forty-First Street in those days, so the first time I went to a meeting, I thought there would be a bunch of bums. Then I thought, you're one too, so you better get over there. I decided not to get dressed up because I didn't want to look better than everybody else, and when I got there, Park Avenue was there and everybody was there. So I learned my lesson--never think you're better than anybody else, just go. It was quite an education to see how everybody was suffering the same disease. I met people like Felicia [see "Stars Don't Fall" interview in the August 1995 Grapevine]. I never knew a princess before. I never knew a countess before! I can tell you, I never could have gotten anything like that anywhere else. And there was a humanity in all of us for each other. I was so welcome. It was the first time I felt welcome.

You did a lot of Twelfth-Step calls in those days.

Oh yes, we went everywhere. We'd go on buses all over to speak. People's houses, or rented rooms. So many lived in such lonely rooms, all by themselves, no bathroom.

75th Anniversary Big Book

Alcoholics Anonymous World Services will publish a replica of the First Edition Big Book. It will be available in April 2014.

We do not know the price yet !

Stories from the First Edition of The Big Book and The Second and Third Editions are available in the book: "Experience, Strength and Hope" available at The Bookstore for $9.50.

CSOR Meeting is the Third Monday of each month at 6:00 pm at CSO

Fellowship Room - 8802-8804 Tradeway, San Antonio, TX 78217

On the agenda in August

The Family Fun Fair Chair will present the upcoming Fair details
The representative from The Day in Recovery Conference will present information about the conference
New Secretary for the CSOR

Each AA group elects a Central Service Office Representative who attends a monthly meeting. The purpose of this meeting is to keep the groups informed of the Central Service Office activities and to allow the Central Service Office Rep to voice the opinion(s) and/or inquiries of his/her group. To be involved in outreach activities as desired. Does your group have a CSOR?

Proposed Minutes for CSOR meeting on 6-17-13

18 CSORS were present for the meeting. One of which was new. His name was Phillip and he was from the Ingram Solutions Group.

The meeting was called to order by our new Chairperson, Tashley at 6pm with the Serenity Prayer.

Marsela read the short form of the 12 traditions.

We went around the room and all introduced themselves with name and group they were representing.

No guests.

Only announcement was we still need more people to attend the Ft. Sam meeting because they cannot leave base. It is at 6:30pm

Rebecca read the minutes of the May meeting and they were approved.

Doug F. gave a financial report - AA in SA was a huge success! Total profit was $25,171.70. $7000 stays in the reserve to start up of next year, and the remainder will be incorporated into the CSO budget. Doug Informed the group of 5 CD's in Prudent Reserve, $13,000 in the Operating Account. Then, we went over the total contributions from all the groups in April and May, doing a comparison, and it showed much lower in May. They said in past years this was typical after AA in SA and before summer. Cost of goods went down because of good management and sometime price from vendors.

ARCHIVES - Paul B. interviewed for a archives position. Still looking for memorabilia to donate but only from San Antonio. Please ask your groups about this...look through pictures, etc.

No Old Business

7th Tradition Basket was passed.

The meeting was closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Financials are given at the monthly CSOR Meeting on the 3rd Monday of the month. We encourage our Groups to send a representative from their Group to hear the financials read, to hear what is happening across the city, and ask questions.

It is nice to have CSOR's that come each month on a regular basis to support the operations of the office and The Bookstore. Currently there are about 22 Groups participating monthly. This is good.

However, your group can send a representative without their being a CSOR. The representative can sit in on meetings and does not have to come each month.

Flyers for these events are available at the Central Service Office Fellowship Room.
