Twelve Tips on Keeping Your Holiday Season Sober and Joyous

Holiday parties without liquid spirits may still seem a dreary prospect to new A.A.s. But many of us have enjoyed the happiest holidays of our lives sober—an idea we would never have dreamed of, wanted, or believed possible when drinking. Here are some tips for having an all-round ball without a drop of alcohol.

1 Line up extra A.A. activities for the holiday season. Arrange to take newcomers to meetings, answer the phones at a clubhouse or central office, speak, help with dishes, or visit the alcoholic ward at a hospital.

2 Be host to A.A. friends, especially newcomers. If you don't have a place where you can throw a formal party, take one person to a diner and spring for the coffee.

3 Keep your A.A. telephone list with you all the time. If a drinking urge or panic comes—postpone everything else until you've called an A.A.

4 Find out about the special holiday parties, meetings, or other celebrations given by groups in your area, and go. If you're timid, take someone newer than you are.

5 Skip any drinking occasion you are nervous about. Remember how clever you were at excuses when drinking? Now put the talent to good use. No office party is as important as saving your life.

6 If you have to go to a drinking party and can't take an A.A. with you, keep some candy handy.

7 Don't think you have to stay late. Plan in advance an "important date" you have to keep.

8 Worship in your own way.

9 Don't sit around brooding. Catch up on those books, museums, walks, and letters.

10 Don't start now getting worked up about all those holiday temptations. Remember—"one day at a time."

11 Enjoy the true beauty of holiday love and joy. Maybe you cannot give material gifts—but this year, you can give love.

12 "Having had a . . ." No need to spell out the Twelfth Step here, since you already know it.

Special Needs For Our Members

We are currently developing a list of “possible areas of concern” in the San Antonio area. Please email us at csosa@stic.net if you have a concern or an area of special needs that you believe we should address. Or...drop by and have a conversation with us.

At this time we are developing a CD with the service material that is necessary for a CSOR to read as part of their service. This CD will be made available to members who have reading problems and would benefit from an audio presentation. This project came as a result of a conversation with a member who expressed the need for an audio presentation. It is true ! When more than one of us gather we can be informed.

Join us in this endeavor

Spirituality and Relapse

By John M.

I believe that if we are spiritually fit, we will not relapse. If we turn our will and our lives over to the care of God, as we understand God, we are granted a daily reprieve from relapse. Here's what that looks like:

We recognize who is God and who isn't. That means we stop pretending to be our own Higher Power. We stop trying to control life and begin living it.

We accept ourselves as children of God, worthy of dignity, respect, and recovery. We have value because our Creator says so.

We practice the principle of Anonymity, putting principles ahead of personalities. This means that we are equals in a fellowship of men and women, neither above nor below others. We do not change the way we act because of personal likes or dislikes, but act according to the principles of our program: honesty, openness, willingness, and fellowship.

We accept life on life's terms. We do not struggle to force people, places or things to be different than they are. We may continue to work for achievement, change, and to build up others, but we don't fight against others to achieve what we want.

We surrender to the care of our Higher Power. We let go of defiance. We do not require God to justify Himself to us, or explain why He has allowed things to happen. We do not bargain with God to let us become social drinkers. We make no excuses for ourselves, nor do we blame others. Instead, we commit ourselves to God's care.

We learn to trust God, and the program of recovery, for a positive outcome in life. We fulfill our responsibilities, and trust God for the outcome.

We are of service to others. God has given us the gift of recovery, but we are given it for a purpose: We are here on earth to serve others. By passing on the gift of recovery, we get to keep it for ourselves.

We remain in the fellowship of Alcoholics Anonymous and we continue to work the steps in our lives, so that we will be using the tools God has chosen for us.

We pray, which is speaking to God, and meditate which is listening, so that we may know and do God's will. We remember the past, and cultivate gratitude in our hearts for the gift of recovery.

Things We Cannot Change

Their little cabezas all full of good things
They're esperando que' Santa will bring.
But Santa esta at the corner saloon,
Muy borracho since midafternoon.
Mama is sitting beside la ventana
Shining her rolling pin para mañana and
When Santa returns to his home zigzagueando,
Lit up like the Star Spangled Banner, cantandp.
The mama will send him to bed con a right;
Merry Christmas a todos y a todos - good night!*

Tradition Twelve (long form)

And finally, we of Alcoholics Anonymous believe that the principle of anonymity has an immense spiritual significance. It reminds us that we are to place principles before personalities; that we are actually to practice a genuine humility. This to the end that our great blessings may never spoil us; that we shall forever live in thankful contemplation of Him who presides over us all.

Local Service

Greetings,

I would like to Thank all of you for your continued support in this wonderful journey. It is such an honor to serve as your SAMSO Grapevine Committee Representative. As such, it has given me a new awakening to learn and share my experience with all of you who have helped along the way.

As the year is ending the holidays are approaching quickly and I just would like to remind you about the different opportunities Grapevine has to offer. As mentioned in the last workshop, there was an individual who had gone back to drinking and the Grapevine kept arriving month after month...a friendly reminder of the Hope we have to share. There were several other remarkable stories similar to that which continue to inspire me.

The Grapevine has published two new books within the year:

Happy, Joyous & Free and Young & Sober. These would be great gifts. There are bundle packs of Grapevines for your Group to use as a twelve step tool and sometimes there are gift subscriptions online that allow you to purchase two subscriptions for the year. Don't forget...Pass it along once you have read them. We have other committees that use them at different facilities for literature.

The committee has three members and according to the service manual there are opportunities from EVERY Group. We would like to help keep it "alive on the vine", but I need your help. We meet the second Sunday of the month at 1:15-1:45 to discuss what we can do to help others. If you have any questions or concerns please contact me. Thank you again and I look forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely,

Dianniella S.

Where does the money go?

Funds received at the Central Service Office go to support the Central Service Office of San Antonio activities; according to the purposes as outlined in the Bylaws and as directed by the Board of Trustees.

Restricted funds received for specific purposes from members or groups, go to support the program that the funds are designated to, such as Archives.

Each year the Board of Trustees approves a budget for the year. The budget runs a calendar year.

The budget is available for our members to review.

The Central Service Office Representatives review the financials every month at 6:00pm on the third Monday of the month. Visitors are welcome to attend.

Contribution to CSO in October

Birthday: Little Joe	47.00
Fellowship Room	126.97
