TO ALL MEMBERS:

Greetings On Our 10th Christmas 1944

Yes, it's in the air! The spirit of Christmas once more warms this poor distraught world. Over the whole globe millions are looking forward to that one day when strife can be forgotten, when it will be remembered that all human beings, even the least are loved by God, when men will hope for the coming of the Prince of Peace as they never hoped before.

But there is another world which is not poor. Neither is it distraught. It is the world of Alcoholics Anonymous, where thousands dwell happily and secure. Secure because each of us, in his own way, knows a greater power who is love, who is just, and who can be trusted.

Nor can men and women of AA ever forget that only through suffering did they find enough humility to enter the portals of that New World.

How privileged we are to understand so well the divine paradox that strength rises from weakness, that humiliation goes before resurrection, that pain is not only the price but the very touchstone of spiritual rebirth.

Knowing its full worth and purpose, we can no longer fear adversity, we have found prosperity where there was poverty, peace and joy have spring out of the very midst of chaos.

Great indeed, our blessings!

And so, - Merry Christmas to you all-from the Trustees, from Bobbie and from Lois and me.

Bill Wilson

The Office needs back-up volunteers. Sometimes our regular daytime volunteers need a break or get sick and we will call on our back-up volunteers to come into the CSO and answer the helpline. If this sounds like your “cup of tea” call Virginia at 821-6325.

I am responsible. When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of AA always to be there. And for that: I am responsible.

Tradition Twelve (long form)

And finally we of Alcoholics Anonymous believe that the principle of anonymity has an immense spiritual significance. It reminds us that we are to place principles before personalities; that we are actually to practice a genuine humility. This to the end that our great blessings may never spoil us; that we shall forever live in thankful contemplation of Him who presides over us all.

Did you know that the long form of the Traditions is in your Twelve & Twelve on page 189?

Signs of Hope Meeting

Meets on Saturday at 5pm

This meeting will be aimed at assisting the hard of hearing & hearing impaired AA members by providing Interpreters. All groups are invited to assist this group to develop and consider this as Group service by accepting the responsibility to open and close the meeting, and with having enough members to attend and bring topics. CSOR Meeting is the Third Monday of each month at 6:00 pm at CSO

Fellowship Room - 8802-8804 Tradeway, San Antonio, TX 78217

The term of office for a group Central Service Office Rep is two (2) years; however, each group may determine the term of office for its representative. Each group may also elect an alternate Central Service Office Rep. All AA members are welcome at a Central Service Office Representative meeting.

On the agenda in December

Chairperson—vote on new Chair (Chair rotates every six months)

Alternate Chairperson-vote on (rotates every six months)

Discussion on special needs accessibilities and how groups and CSO can assist.

The Central Service Office Rep serves as a vital link in maintaining two-way communication between the group and CSO. The Central Service Office Rep takes the responsibility for keeping the group informed on CSO matters, and provides CSO with up-dated information of a group contact name and phone number.

CSOR and their alternate are encouraged to learn more about the operations of the Central Service Office.

Each AA group elects a Central Service Office Representative who attends a monthly meeting. The purposes of this meeting are to keep the groups informed of the Central Service Office activities; to allow the Central Service Office Rep to voice the opinion(s) and/or inquiries of his/her group; and to be involved in outreach activities as desired. Does your group have a CSOR?

Interview with the Author of "The Independent Blonde"

Fifth in a series of articles on authors of Big Book stories

Once I had to hospitalize my landlady; this woman was a drunk and I put her into Knickerbocker Hospital. And that night Elizabeth said, "Nancy did the most wonderful thing today." And I thought, what did I do? I had never been praised before and I felt so warm inside and I thought, This is wonderful. And then I thought, Maybe there is something about me that she sees. If a woman like that sees something in me, maybe there is something. Elizabeth started me off, she encouraged me. Whatever she told me to do, I did. She took me in sort of as a member of their family. For the first five years, I did nothing but go to AA. I couldn't do anything else--didn't know anything else to do.

Then you started your hairdressing career?

I was in business for twenty-six years on my own. I always said to Elizabeth, "I'm afraid of everything." And she said, "But that never stops you from doing things." She just nurtured me. I told her I should take lessons in English, and she said, "No, you should take lessons in speech." So she sent me to George Dixon who coached Rex Harrison in "My Fair Lady." He had a sign up over his door which said, "Create yourself; everything else has been done." I went there for a year. I went everywhere: churches, psychology, therapy. Whatever she suggested, I would do. She was the one that taught me that there was something inside of me--that I could do things.

You know, Marty M. [a founder of what is now the National Council on Alcoholism] was going to hire me as a speaker. She sent me to Yale to take alcoholic studies and I was thrilled. Oh my God, I thought, I won't have to work hard, I'll go there and I'll go around speaking. Oh it will be marvelous. Because I had to go out to hairdressing shows and I was scared to death to do that; I had to improve my skills and work hard and go into business and learn about labor laws and all that. See, I didn't want to do that. Then Elizabeth said to me, "Do you think you should earn your living over what's wrong with you?" "Oh," I said, "is that what I'd be doing? No, no that's not what I want to do." So I came back and told Marty that I wasn't going to work for her. I want to tell you, I never had such a difficult thing. But I had to do it. I wouldn't have liked myself if I didn't.

You were married?

I met my husband when I worked on a ship. He was an officer on a ship; he was a big tough man, very handsome. He was in the Navy during the war. He could drink and never get drunk. Well, he got drunk but he was never like I was. I was sloppy. Sometimes I'd go to sleep and sometimes I'd fight. I'd say things that I didn't have the courage to say when I was sober. One day he beat me right down to a pulp and I took care of myself from that day on. When I left him, I just took my coffeepot, no furniture. He put his mother in our house. She was a sweet lady, and I went up to see her and I looked at that furniture and I said to myself, "The next time you belittle yourself for sticks of wood, let me know." And I never asked anybody for anything again. I found the answers in myself, which was the greatest thing that ever happened to me.

You went back to school in sobriety?

I went to high school in my fifties and went to college when I was seventy. I called up a therapist I'd gone to and I said, "How can I prevent myself from being frightened of old age? I'm watching a friend of mine who's scared to death about getting old--and she's got a companion and children and everything. How can I prevent it?" And he said, "Go to school." So I did.

What did you study?

Special Needs Accessibility Committee at CSO

Both groups and members can become more aware of AA's who need specific kinds of help. But the most important fact to keep in mind is that all alcoholics-- whether deaf, blind, or with other disabilities-- want to be a part of the whole. The goal is to enable every alcoholic to be an active participant in the group, without emphasizing differences. (From AA Service Piece F-107 copyright AA Word Services)

Financials are given at the monthly CSOR Meeting on the 3rd Monday of the month. We encourage our Groups to send a representative from their Group to hear the financials read, to hear what is happening across the city, and ask questions. It is nice to have CSOR's that come each month on a regular basis to support the operations of the office and The Bookstore. Currently there are about 22 Groups participating monthly. This is good. However, your group can send a representative without their being a CSOR. The representative can sit in on meetings and does not have to come each month.
