Congratulations to Jim B of San Antonio, TX for being selected the 2010 Host Committee Chair.

There is much organization to be done with this committee before we can sign up to volunteer, but we send our best and will be waiting in the wings to volunteer.

Jim thinks the committee will be ready to receive volunteers by the end of 2009, or the first part of 2010.

Stay tuned!

On the Telephones at Central Offices...

We Don't Win Them All

It was a quiet night at the central office, since I was the only phone volunteer for the 7 to 10 night shift. Most of the calls had been from people wanting to know where the nearest AA meeting was, and as the hour neared 8 PM—when most of the meetings in the area started—I anticipated a somewhat dull two hours coming up.

Not so. The phone rang and I gave the traditional greeting: "Alcoholics Anonymous, may we help you?"

"Are you going to trace this call?" asked a young-sounding woman's voice. "If you are, I'm, going to hang up!"

Uh oh, a wet one. Time to be very, very careful. No mistaking that slurred speech at the other end of the line. I made it very clear that we do not trace phone calls. I went into a short talk about the AA Tradition of anonymity for all. She seemed to hesitate, then it all poured out about how she was drinking to drive away the fears, though they always came back, and that she was in pain and she needed help, and "...are you sure you're not trying to trace this call?" But this time the question was not as fearful as the first time.

I again reassured her about the AA Traditions concerning anonymity, and then began to draw her out. Did she want to stop drinking? Did she want the help of AA to stop drinking? She asked me if I was really an alcoholic, and I gave her a brief qualification mixed in with more comments about anonymity.

How well those old-timers knew about the importance of anonymity as a protection for the fearful newcomer!

I have no hard and fast rules about dealing with a still suffering alcoholic. Every case is different, and sometimes you just have to guess what the best method will be to use over the phone. But this time I spent a good ten minutes on anonymity, as well as the other Traditions. She was now at the point where she expressed an interest in talking to another AA about the program.

That is, of course, what I had been slowly leading up to, since our usual procedure is to get the caller's name, city, and phone number and then to find a Twelfth Step worker in the same area and of the same sex to talk to the newcomer.

Then, at the other end of the phone line, I heard a door open and close and a faint voice asked, "Who are you calling?" My caller hung up at once, and that was that. I waited two and a half hours, but she didn't call back. Sorry folks, but we don't win them all. In fact, we win very few.

But maybe I was able to plant a mustard seed in her mind, thanks to the anonymity Traditions of AA. Maybe she will try AA again. So, if you see a newcomer at your meeting, be gentle with her and remember the Traditions of AA, since she might be my caller.

THINGS WE CANNOT CHANGE

We have lost a member of our extended family Donald V passed in December with 13 years of sobriety. Donnie was a graduate of the ARC. Friends remember him as a great example of a walking Big Book.

Is your group represented at the Central Service Office?

The Central Office Representatives (CORs) meet on the 3rd Monday of each month.

A.A. is a "we" program, and the Central Office Rep (COR) position provides a way for your group to connect with other groups and A.A. as a whole; also, it provides a service opportunity that can lead to more service options for your group.

"Elect a COR to attend." We need your group's voice at CSO. You do that through your COR. Otherwise a few groups get to decide for us all.
