Central Service Office

Hello. I have the honor to follow Char as Office Manager for the Central Service Office. I am excited about serving the fellowship in this capacity.

I look forward to meeting fellow members of Alcoholics Anonymous as you come by the office to shop, and visit with the staff here.

We are busy updating all of the group and district information since many service members have rotated into new positions in January.

The coffee pot is on...come by and visit.

Tomi B.A.

Some say that change is difficult !

Here at the Central Service Office we believe that change can be beneficial to our A.A. community when we consider our common welfare.

Our Nightcap can reach more members of our fellowship by making it free and accessible by email.

The Nightcap is still available at the office as a printed document for those who want a hard copy of the newsletter. The office no longer mails a hard copy of the Newsletter, but you may come by the office and pick up a complimentary issue for free, additional issues are 50¢ a copy.

There is a form at the back of this newsletter to use for signing up AA members for the Nightcap. Please help your group members fill this out and you can drop it by the office, scan and email it to the office, or send by the US postal service.

Exciting News !

The Nightcap is on the CSO Website:

<http://aasanantonio.org>

THE NIGHTCAP IS ABOUT, BY AND FOR MEMBERS OF THE AA FELLOWSHIP. OPINIONS EXPRESSED HEREIN ARE NOT TO BE ATTRIBUTED TO ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS AS A WHOLE, NOR DOES PUBLICATION OF ANY ARTICLE IMPLY ANY ENDORSEMENT BY EITHER AA OR THE NIGHTCAP. (Exceptions: Quotations from AA books, pamphlets, and the 12 Steps and/or 12 Traditions are reprinted with permission of AA World Services Inc. The AA Preamble, slogans, etc. are reprinted with permission of The Grapevine, Inc.)

MY HOME GROUP

Serendipity is on the Northeast side of town. We celebrated 21 years this month. I have not been there that long. But I have been there long enough to be willing to learn a few things. I learned how to stay sober. I learned how to live. The people at my home group taught me these things. I came crawling into AA (again) and found smiles and acceptance and understanding and love. I found people who told me what to do and what not to do. I found people who shared of themselves so that I could get better. My home group reminds me of the steps. It is simple, but not easy. We tend to complicate things from time to time. There are people I love and people I work at loving. There are things I don't like and have to accept. A great deal of time and effort and honesty and quiet service (work) are necessary. At Serendipity we do these things to the best of our ability. Mistakes are made and lessons are learned. Through it all, though, (the steps, traditions, votes, "discussions", cleaning, painting, serving) we do our best to keep the doors open, the coffee made, and a smile on our faces for the next one who comes in. Just like it was when I came crawling in.

Serendipity Group 1990 - 2011

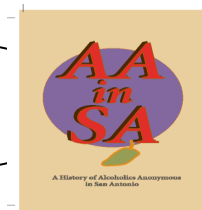

San Antonio, Texas

"Resentment, coffee pot and two or more alcoholics....and a new meeting is formed.

November 1990 several alcoholics left a meeting dissatisfied. They went a ways down the road, and started a meeting that met their needs. Some of those members were Joe H, Inga S., Ken F, Marcy S., and Jerry H. The resentment is not important. What is important is the outcome; a new meeting that has continued to carry the message of Alcoholics Anonymous for over fifteen years, a Group that has been involved in Alcoholics Anonymous in every aspect of Service from the District to the Area, and has carried the message to the 'still suffering' alcoholic on a daily basis." “This is Alcoholics Anonymous...May I help you?”

Thank you for volunteering to answer phones.

As Dr Bob said, The program of Alcoholics Anonymous can be summed up in two words: love & service.

Your service may result in helping save the life of a suffering alcoholic. It will certainly mean that you help many alcoholics, in and out of the fellowship. And, we hope you will help yourself by giving of yourself “

Central Service Office sends a thank you for your service.
