DEPOSITORY ACCOUNT

For Groups

A depository account at the Central Service Office is a special account for groups. Groups choose to set up this account with the Central Service Office.

How does it work?

A group will deposit money at the Central Service Office to be used by the group to purchase books and/or other items at the Bookstore. This allows a group the opportunity to send members to the Bookstore for supplies and not have to send money with the member.

The group decides on the amount to deposit, who will be allowed to purchase items on this account. The group maintains ownership of the funds and may request that the funds be returned to the group at any time. It is easy to set-up the account. A statement may be requested at anytime.

How to set up the account

Bring cash or check (no credit cards) to the Bookstore. Bring a list of persons names that you want to be able to charge against this account. Bring contact name and telephone number. That's it!

Senior in Sobriety (SIS) AA Meeting

A rapidly growing number of alcoholics who are now seniors have surfaced in San Antonio. Other cities have Groups that are geared towards seniors.

If you haven't heard of SIS, don't feel bad since not many people are aware of the ever growing need for Alcoholics Anonymous meetings geared towards Seniors. SIS had its beginning as part of the special needs committee work in Southeast New York in 1990 and has grown into a dynamic, much needed resource for AA members and Newcomers alike. It is never too late or to early to be happy, joyous and free!

Dallas has the first SIS meeting in Texas. It was well attended and a desire chip was given to a new member.

San Antonio does not have a Senior in Sobriety Meeting. There is time and space available in the Fellowship Room next door to the Central Service Office on Saturdays (any hour), and week days (7-9am) for early morning meetings.

If you are interested in starting a Senior in Sobriety Meeting call our office and speak with Tomi or Virginia - 821-6325.

Each AA group elects a Central Service Office Representative who attends a monthly meeting. The purposes of this meeting are to keep the groups informed of the Central Service Office activities; to allow the Central Service Office Rep to voice the opinion(s) and/or inquiries of his/her group; and to be involved in outreach activities as desired. Tradition One (long form)

Each member of Alcoholics Anonymous is a small part of a great whole. A.A. must continue to live or most of us will surely die. Hence our common welfare comes first. But individual welfare follows close afterward.

Did you know that the long form of the Traditions is in your Twelve & Twelve on page 189?

Interview With the Author of "Physician, Heal Thyself!"

Fourth in a series of articles on authors of Big Book stories

DR. EARLE

Dr. Earle's story "Physician, Heal Thyself!" appeared in the Second and Third Editions of the Big Book. Dr. Earle was interviewed by telephone at his home in California by a Grapevine staff member.

What happened?

I talk about it some in my Big Book story. The only thing I knew about AA was what I'd read in Jack Alexander's article [Saturday Evening Post, March 1941]. It said that one of the founders, Dr. Bob, was a doctor, and I'm a doctor--I'm a gynecologist and I'm also a psychiatrist--so I identified with that. On the last day of my drinking, I talked to a friend of mine about AA. My friend gave me a piece of paper and there were twenty-four or twenty-five statements on it directed toward the drinker who's planning on stopping. Now that wasn't me. I didn't plan on stopping. In fact, I thought I had the problem licked--once again. I had gotten a concoction that I thought wouldn't get me drunk--vodka over ice. Plus, I hadn't ever considered myself alcoholic. I hadn't used that phrase. A drunk--yes. I couldn't stop drinking and stay stopped--yes. But in those days we used the word alcoholic to mean somebody on skid row, and I wasn't on skid row.

I don't recall leaving my friend's house (I wasn't totally blacked-out that day--I was kind of browned-out), but I do recall being on my deck in Mill Valley trying to make out what this piece of paper said. I was just so drunk I couldn't read it. So I asked my wife to read it to me and she did. And she read one thing that said, "Don't stop drinking for anybody else except yourself." That made a very deep impression on me; to this day I've no idea why. And the next thing she read was, "Don't consider yourself a martyr because you stopped drinking." I've forgotten what the other statements were, but those two just hit me across the face like a baseball bat. I broke down and cried. Of course crying was par for the course in those days. Bing Crosby was popular then and I'd listen to his songs and I'd cry, or I'd be driving along and I'd look up at the sky and I'd see a lovely cloud and I'd cry. I'd look at my wife and daughter and cry, and I suspect they looked at me and cried too.

Well, that evening my wife patted me on the back and went into the house, and I sat there and I'd never felt so depressed in my life. Now, I'm a reasonably happy guy. I have my downs, like everybody does, but in general I kind of radiate above the line. But this was the deepest I'd ever felt. I was feeling just terrible. I don't know how long I sat there--for a long time. Finally I looked at my watch and I realized it was time to ascend my stairs--we lived on the side of a mountain--and go up to the barbecue area and make the fire for dinner. I remember going up those stairs and being so drunk I was afraid I'd fall. There were no handrails on those stairs. I got to the top stair and I looked at my drink and I had just a little bit left in the bottom of the glass, and I thought, "This small amount won't do any good, I'd better go down to the kitchen and make a big drink and bring it back up." So I turned around, just feeling terrible, down and depressed, and all of a sudden a very remarkable thing happened to me. It was as though an explosion occurred inside of me. I felt pain in every segment of my body. I have no idea why this happened. At that instant I heard the words, "This is your last drink." Well, I certainly hadn't planned on this. This is your last drink!

Financials are given at the monthly CSOR Meeting on the 3rd Monday of the month. We encourage our Groups to send a representative from their Group to hear the financials read, to hear what is happening across the city, and ask questions. It is nice to have CSOR's that come each month on a regular basis to support the operations of the office and The Bookstore. Currently there are about 22 Groups participating monthly. This is good. However, your group can send a representative without their being a CSOR. The representative can sit in on meetings and does not have to come each month.

What's happening at your group?

"I am responsible. When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of AA always to be there. And for that I am responsible."

This goes hand in hand with the Fifth Tradition. The Long form says "Each Alcoholics Anonymous group ought to be a spiritual entity having but one primary purpose-that of carrying its message to the alcoholic who still suffers."
