Group Depository Account

A depository account at the Central Service Office is a special account for groups. Groups choose to set up this account with the Central Service Office / Bookstore.

How does it work?

A group will deposit money at the Central Service Office to be used by the group to purchase books and/or other items at the Bookstore. This allows a group the opportunity to send members to the Bookstore for supplies and not have to send money with the member.

The group decides on the amount to deposit, who will be allowed to purchase items on this account. The group maintains ownership of the funds and may request that the funds be returned to the group at any time. It is easy to setup the account. A statement may be requested at any time.

How to set up the account

Bring cash, check, debit card or credit card, to the Bookstore. Monday 9am to 6pm, Tuesday through Friday 9am to 5pm. Bring a list of persons names that you want to be able to charge against this account. Bring contact name and telephone number. That's it!

You can change the names that can charge to this account at anytime your Groups wishes.

How is this useful to your Group?

- Members do not have to be wait to be reimbursed
- Members that cannot afford to spend their own money and wait to be reimbursed can participate.
- Groups maintain a listing of anything purchased at the CSO as the Groups purchases are tracked by the computer with Quickbooks. This listing can be printed out at the request of the Group.

Happy New Year to all,

San Antonio's A.A. history is more than a list of names and dates. Like any good story, the anguish, joy and hope of alcoholics recovering from a hopeless state of mind and body make up the tale of San Antonio A.A., story. The sometimes funny, often mundane, and on occasion dramatic incidents make up who we were and who we are.

In the January 1951 Nightcap we listed 9 groups with 11 meetings a week. Today we have more than 100 groups and well over 400 meetings a week.

Our mission is to document permanently the work of Alcoholics Anonymous in the San Antonio Metropolitan Area, to make that history accessible to A.A. members and other researchers, and to provide a local context for understanding A.A.'s development, Principles, and 12 Traditions.

In order to accomplish this we need volunteers from all around our city. How can you be a part of this exciting adventure you may ask?

Group histories. Volunteers of this subcommittee collect, assemble and preserve each group's unique stories. They go out to groups and acquire date facts, anecdotes, and talk to members one-on-one to get the "real" story. This can be a fascinating experience.

Oral histories. This subcommittee has been amazingly successful in recording for posterity our local old-timers so that their experience, strength and hope aren't lost. We are attempting to preserve their legacy.

Some of our amazing projects accomplished this year include:

- The Oral Library currently has 154 selections. These include 40 or so personal stories of Old -timers alive and passed. Thanks to the Serendipity Group, their speaker tapes held a wealth of these stories.
- The Group History album currently boasts many Groups.
- Grapevine corner opened in November. Please come in and visit, enjoy these old volumes.
- A "Oficina Intergrupual Hispana" The Spanish speaking Intergroup display case was added and soon , a Service display case will be added.
- "Walk thru Time" display will grow throughout the New Year.

The fellowship room becomes an active Archive workshop almost every Thursday. I invite you to drop in. Thanks again to all who have enjoyed this service and invite others to come and join me in this exciting adventure.

I am so grateful to have this opportunity. My passion for our Archives has grown and I look forward to where we are headed.

Yours in service,

Tami S.

COURT ORDERED TO ATTEND AA?

How do we recover in AA? Where does that start? Do Groups have a responsibility?

Millions of people have found recovery through AA, including many who were sent by courts or their employers. While some who are sent to AA attend the required number of meetings and never return, others keep coming back because they find that AA helps them live comfortably without alcohol.

When do Groups apply the "Responsibility Pledge" I am Responsible When Anyone, Anywhere Reaches Out For Help, I Want The Hand Of A.A Always To Be There. And For That, I Am Responsible !

What is AA's role in the process?

Alcoholics Anonymous is not part of the judicial system. We do not work with the courts or the police department. We do not ask the courts to send people to us. When people do show up with court papers, we are not responsible for making sure the people are sober. If a judge, court, school, or employer has sent you to AA meetings, it is because they believe there is evidence that you have a drinking problem. We had nothing to do with their decision-in fact, AA has no opinion as to whether you have a drinking problem or not.

If, however, you want to stop drinking, AA has a solution.

Here are a few points to remember:

If you have a desire to stop drinking, you may consider yourself an AA member. Otherwise, you will be a welcome guest at Open meetings. Please do not attend Closed meetings if you don't consider yourself a member or have a desire to stop drinking. In our printed Meeting Directory and on our website all meetings are clearly marked as to whether they are Open or Closed. For further information please go to our meetings section or call 210-828-6235 (our Helpline in San Antonio.)

While most groups will sign court papers, this is for each individual group to decide. Since AA is not allied with the court system, AA is not required to do the court's work.

If a chairperson or other group member agrees to sign your papers, they will probably sign with their first name or initials. We are personally anonymous. We are not court employees.

If you have questions, please ask them before or after the meeting. You can always find someone willing to talk to you and answer your questions.

The people who voluntarily attend AA meetings are alcoholics. We come from all walks of life. We treat each other with respect.

In AA we honor all members' anonymity. While you are free to talk about or use any ideas that you hear at a meeting, please do not ever identify any person you hear or see there.

There are no dues or fees for AA membership. We are totally self-supporting through the voluntary contributions of our members. If you do not consider yourself a member, please refrain from contributing.

No one in AA can tell you that you are an alcoholic. Some people can point out indications that are symptomatic of a drinking problem: loss of control, drunk driving, arrests, lost jobs, broken marriages or relationships, blackouts, etc. But only you can decide if you actually are an alcoholic, and if that's your decision, we invite you to keep coming back.

Tradition Four:

Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or A.A. as a whole.

Grapevine Fact Sheet

Fact Sheet

- The first issue of the AA Grapevine was published in June 1944. A new issue has come out every month since.
- Early AA groups adopted the AA Grapevine as the international journal of Alcoholics Anonymous in 1946. The General Service Conference reaffirmed this designation in 1986.
- The AA Grapevine is produced by a staff of professional editors, writers, and artists, who are members of AA. Most of the articles are written by members of the Fellowship.
- Bill W. introduced the Traditions to the Fellowship in a 1946 Grapevine article called "Twelve Suggested Points for AA Tradition."
- Acting as the senior advisor of the magazine, Bill W. wrote more than 150 articles in the AA Grapevine between 1945 and 1970. His articles are collected in the anthology The Language of the Heart.
- The Preamble was written by a Grapevine editor, based on the Foreword to the first edition of the Big Book. It was first published in the Grapevine in June 1947.
- In July 1995, a special edition of the Grapevine in Spanish was published, and in July 1996, the AA Grapevine began publishing La Viña, a bimonthly Spanish-language magazine.

The AA Grapevine is entirely self-supporting through the sale of the magazine and related items. It receives none of the group contributions sent to the General Service Office.

Highlights from A.A.W.S.

Starting a New A.A. Group

Reasons for starting a new group vary, but the ways to go about it are basically the same.

Important to establishing an A.A. group is the need for one as expressed by at least two or three alcoholics; the cooperation of other A.A. members; a meeting place; a coffeepot; A.A. literature and meeting lists; and other supplies.

Once the group is off to a good start, it would be helpful to announce its presence to neighboring groups; your local Intergroup (central) office, if there is one; your district and area committees; and the General Service Office. These sources can provide much support.

To list your A.A. group with G.S.O., click on the New Group Form below. Complete and return the form to G.S.O., Box 459, Grand Central Station, New York, NY 10163.

Please see below for suggested reading. We suggest you pay particular attention to the section "Naming an A.A. Group" in the pamphlet "The A.A. Group"

Each new group receives a complimentary handbook and a small supply of literature at no charge when it registers with the G.S.O (one of the many services made possible by the regular support of other A.A. groups and individual members).

Tradition One (long form)

Each member of Alcoholics Anonymous is a small part of a great whole. A.A. must continue to live or most of us will surely die. Hence our common welfare comes first. But individual welfare follows close afterward.
