Tradition Seven (long)

The A.A. groups themselves ought to be fully supported by the voluntary contributions of their own members. We think that each group should soon achieve this ideal; that any public solicitation of funds using the name of Alcoholics Anonymous is highly dangerous, whether by groups, clubs, hospitals, or other outside agencies; that acceptance of large gifts from any source, or of contributions carrying any obligation whatever, is unwise. Then too, we view with much concern those A.A. treasuries which continue, beyond prudent reserves, to accumulate funds for no stated A.A. purpose. Experience has often warned us that nothing can so surely destroy our spiritual heritage as futile disputes over property, money, and authority.

Did you know that the long form of the Traditions is in your Twelve & Twelve on page 189?

Things We Cannot Change

Mike Y. passed away on June 27th. Mike was a long time member with 47 years sober. He was a member for many years of the Highlands Group.

Dr. Bob's House Becomes A National Historical Landmark

Mother's Day - May 12, 2013

Dr Bob's home was designated a National Historical Landmark on Mother's Day 2013. National Historic Landmarks are nationally significant historic places designated by the Secretary of the Interior because they possess exceptional value or quality in illustrating or interpreting the heritage of the United States. Today, fewer than 2,500 historic places bear this national distinction (only 71 in Ohio). Working with citizens throughout the nation, the National Historic Landmarks Program draws upon the expertise of National Park Service staff who work to nominate new landmarks and provide assistance to existing landmarks. The Akron Mayor, The State Senator, The Lt. Governor, a representative from the Dept. of Interior/National Park services, The County Executive, The Akron AA Historian and the chairman of the Founders Foundation were all in attendance and made various statements in the presentation and dedication of this 72nd historical Ohio landmark.

Second interview in a series of articles on authors of Big Book stories

Interview With the Author of "Stars Don't Fall"

Felicia M. is eighty-nine years old and has been sober for over fifty-one years; she joined the Fellowship in the fall of 1943, when it was only eight years old. Her story, "Stars Don't Fall," is in the Third Edition of the Big Book.

Continued from The July Nightcap.

One of the benefits of Felicia's sobriety is that she and her family were able to make amends. "The thing that I'm very happy about is that I was able to make friends with my mother before her death. We forgave each other. My daughter and I didn't get along for quite a while but now we're really good friends--and I get on with my four grandchildren. I've gone out to Wyoming to see them, and they've been back East. And this is all because of my being sober. I can look back six generations in my family and see only fighting and hatred, and now it's stopped. I go back and pray for my fighting antecedents! I think that's why I was put here--to put an end to the whole business of discord in my family, to break the cycle."

Are there any regrets? "I didn't marry the right man. I wasn't able to live a happy life in that way. I hope that in the next world, I can do it."

The process of change hasn't stopped simply because Felicia has been sober so long. She tries to go to a meeting a week, and she stopped smoking "fairly recently." She still battles what she called in the Big Book "my mortal enemy--the inner me." She said, "I've always had trouble with my temper and with speaking out. I remember Bill had a room in the old Hell's Kitchen clubhouse on Forty-Fifth Street, and one day over there I lost my temper and I went for this woman--actually went for her. She started crying and Bill just comforted her and said nothing to me. I was very ashamed. Oh! I still remember it. I need the 'soft word that turneth away wrath.' I'm still working on that. I'm trying to learn to be tolerant and understanding of those who differ with me."

As we were preparing to leave, Felicia told us, "I don't know what more I can say. I can only tell you the difference between then and now: I have a belief in God. My life is happy."

FELICIA M.

Victor E.

The creation of Jack M., a Grapevine editor, Victor E. made his debut in the July 1962 Grapevine. For more than forty years, Victor has stood before the saloon, looking longingly past its swinging doors, but every time his Higher Power has intervened and kept him from drinking. Some readers wonder how strong Victor E.'s sobriety is, since he keeps showing up at a bar. Others feel he is no different from any other alcoholic facing this cunning and baffling disease. Whatever his shortcomings and however strong his desire to drink, Victor E. hasn't picked up a drink in all these years. And that's how he earns his name.

Financials are given at the monthly CSOR Meeting on the 3rd Monday of the month. We encourage our Groups to send a representative from their Group to hear the financials read, to hear what is happening across the city, and ask questions.

It is nice to have CSOR's that come each month on a regular basis to support the operations of the office and The Bookstore. Currently there are about 22 Groups participating monthly. This is good.

However, your group can send a representative without their being a CSOR. The representative can sit in on meetings and does not have to come each month.

Financials are available for any member to view while at the office. Your interest is appreciated
