The Central Service Office serves AA members and groups across a large expanse of South Texas.

We need Twelve Step Volunteers that live in towns as far away as Junction, Del Rio, Pearsall, San Marcos, New Braunfels, and Seguin.

When a new person calls we need a list of AA members who are willing to talk with the new person.

It is difficult to keep track of all of the Groups, meetings and AA members, without your help.

If you live in one of the towns miles away from San Antonio, we need you to help us locate Twelve Step Volunteers.

Also, If you are involved in any of the following Districts we would like to talk with you about your AA groups. District 2, 11, and 12.

Please call us or email us:

Things We Cannot Change

John (JD) D. passed away on June 4, 2015. JD was an active member of his home group, Serendipity. He was a member of the after-hours telephone crew, answering the phones on a regular schedule. He worked as a twelve-step volunteer.

Alice Y. passed away on Wednesday, June 17, 2015. Alice was a member of the 7am Meeting at Group Twelve.

Speaker List

We (Your Central Service Office) maintains a list of AA members who are willing to speak at various AA Group functions.

If your group wants a speaker to come to your meeting, you may contact the Central Service Office, and we will give you the speakers name and contact information.

This is the beginning of an ongoing project. Please be patient as we build your list of speakers. A list that is not used will go away. Consider this list when you need a speaker.

If you are willing to be a speaker at a group meeting or function, sign-up at the Central Service Office by calling 210-821-6325.

This list can be populated by:

- Speakers: who share their experience in getting sober and staying sober.
- Step Speakers: Speakers who tell their story while talking about the twelve steps of our program.
- Speakers and the Traditions: Speakers who explain the Twelve Traditions.
- Speakers and the Concepts: Speakers who explain the Twelve Concepts.

 Night Cap

But the San Antonio Group, although disappointed, were more determined than ever. They sent one of Father Jones' "pigeons" to Houston for a week of orientation.

He attended meetings and came back with the meagre amount of AA literature available at that time, including a Big Book. San Antonio AA had something concrete to go on at last.

The embryonic group held weekly meetings in the Assistant Rector's study at St. Mark's and waited for the telephone calls they expected to receive in reply to an advertisement they had inserted in one of the San Antonio papers. The ad read, "if you want to drink, that's your business - if you want to quit that's our business".

The notice drew a few sufferers and the group struggled along until the bombing of Pearl Harbor Dec. 7. Then faced with the acute problems of a nation at war the group disbanded when its members scattered. A small but hopeful beginning had ended.

But the germ of Alcoholics Anonymous had been nurtured with this abortive beginning. Four years later, Apr. 12, 1945, a group of ex-tiplers again called upon Reverend Jones, who was now Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of West Texas headquartered in San Antonio.

District 17 Welcomes their new Alternate DCM
Karen M. from Turning Point Group

Tradition Seven (long form)

The A.A. groups themselves ought to be fully supported by the voluntary contributions of their own members. We think that each group should soon achieve this ideal; that any public solicitation of funds using the name of Alcoholics Anonymous is highly dangerous, whether by groups, clubs, hospitals, or other outside agencies; that acceptance of large gifts from any source, or of contributions carrying any obligation whatever, is unwise. Then too, we view with much concern those A.A. treasuries which continue, beyond prudent reserves, to accumulate funds for no stated A.A. purpose. Experience has often warned us that nothing can so surely destroy our spiritual heritage as futile disputes over property, money, and authority.

Interview With the Author of "Physician, Heal Thyself!"

Fourth in a series of articles on authors of Big Book stories

DR. EARLE

Dr. Earle's story "Physician, Heal Thyself!" appeared in the Second and Third Editions of the Big Book. Dr. Earle was interviewed by telephone at his home in California by a Grapevine staff member.

Continued from May Nightcap— We apologize. The June Nightcap was not current with the story.

I like that Tenth Step pretty well. When you make a mistake--stomp on somebody's toes--you can straighten it out right away. I think that's a pretty valuable Step.

What is your view of the Eleventh Step?

Let me say something which might be heretical to many people. I think that God's will and my will are identical. I think that it was God's will that I become addicted to alcohol and amphetamines so that I could find AA and get sober. And so I feel that the greatest thing that ever happened to me were the alcohol and drugs that I took, because that brought me to where I am, and I need to be here. If the casting director who runs this whole universe were to come to me and say, "Earle, you're going to live your life over again," I would say, "All right, but I want to live it exactly the same way--all the misery, all the drinks, all the amphetamines." All the stuff I took, I'd do it exactly the same way. Why? If I didn't do it exactly the same way, you and I wouldn't be having this conversation and I live on such things. So, the Eleventh Step is great but I don't need to pray for God's guidance. It's here all the time.

So God's will for you is to be sober.

That's right, but he had to get me drunk first.

Is there anything you'd like to say in conclusion?

I think AA is the greatest thing alive. And I think that we do need to check on what's happening in AA, and I think we need to look at AA as a family. AA cannot be the same way it was when Dr. Bob and Bill were here. So I think that we need to go along with changes in AA but let's not forget the Twelve Steps. Let's not forget those suggested Steps that we can use to make ourselves more aware of what's going on. Because to me the greatest thing in life is to be aware of what's happening all the time.

I'm not a church-goer--I'm in church all the time. To me, prayer is utter awareness. I don't know if that makes sense to you but it does to me. It's being aware of things, of what's going on around me all the time, in a given second. That to me is a form of prayer, that to me is a form of righteousness, if you want to use that religious word.

A Buddhist might call that awareness "mindfulness."

Christians call it a state of grace. We in AA have a bit of a state of grace.

The End....

2015 International Convention

You can watch the flag ceremony on your computer while sitting at home.

One of the highlights of each International Convention is the parade of flags of those countries represented at the convention, which takes place at the Opening Meeting on Friday evening.

There will be an anonymity-protected Internet broadcast of the 2015 International Convention Opening Flag Ceremony. Access to the broadcast, which be available through G.S.O.'s A.A> website (www.aa.org), will begin on Saturday, July 4 and end on Monday, July 6, 2015, at midnight Eastern Daylight Time.
