2010 INTERNATIONAL CONVENTION UPDATE

We are receiving many calls about volunteering for the International Convention next year. The most current information concerning the convention is available at www.aa.org. There will be a website shortly about volunteering, however, we are told the actual kick-off for volunteering will not be until January of 2010.

Locally, we have been excited and patient for years in anticipation of this event. We now have bookmarks and magnet reminders available at the Central Office. These items have been donated to the office and are free to everyone. Please stop by today to pick up a supply for your group and/or send some to a friend.

The bookmarks and magnets are a nice reminder about not only this upcoming event, but about the privilege of being the host city.

The dates of the convention are July 1-4, 2010. Mark you calendars. They will need all of us to volunteer. We will be johnny-on-the-spot to welcome/bienvenidos the world to San Antonio in 2010.

New CSO Archives Chair

Paul B has rotated out as the CSO Archives Chair. We owe Paul our deepest gratitude for the work he and his committee have done to get this vital service started.

Sylvia O is now representing CSO as the new archives chair. She will need much help as the committee continues with preservation, oral histories, group histories, displays, etc. Sylvia will represent our office this coming September at the Nat'l AA Archives Workshop in California. It is a hands on workshop which will greatly benefit CSO in knowing where to go from here.

To volunteer to serve on the archives committee, please call 821-6325.
