Tradition Three (long form)

Our membership ought to include all who suffer from alcoholism. Hence we may refuse none who wish to recover. Nor ought A.A. membership ever depend upon money or conformity. Any two or three alcoholics gathered together for sobriety may call themselves an A.A. group, provided that, as a group, they have no other affiliation.

Did you know that the long form of the Traditions is in your Twelve & Twelve on page 189?

The Home Group Finances

Reprint from The AA Group Treasurer (F96) prepared by General Service Office New York.
These pamphlets are free and at Central Service Office.

Spirituality and Money

"While the work of the group treasurer often involves many details, it is important to remember that the money the treasurer oversees serves a spiritual purpose: it enables each group to fulfill its primary purpose of carrying the A.A. message to the alcoholic who still suffers. This is the fundamental work of A.A. and to continue it the group must keep its doors open. The group treasurer is an important part of this Twelfth Step work."

Disbursement of aa Group's Funds

"The group treasurer is usually the person responsible for paying the group's routine bills and for keeping accurate records of the group's funds. The treasurer needs to be well informed about how the group's money is spent and should have addresses and mailing information for all A.A. service entities that the group contributes to. After the group's basic needs are met, such as providing for rent, literature, refreshments, and insurance, the group can participate in the financial support of the Fellowship as a whole by sending money to various A.A. service entities: 1) their local intergroup or central office, 2) their area and district; and 3) the General Service Office. Many groups provide financial support for their

G.S.R.s attending service functions.

These entities use contributions in a number of ways, always with the aim of carrying the A.A. message to the alcoholic who still suffers."

Treasurer Reports

"Most groups request a treasurer's report and all relevant documentation at monthly or regularly scheduled business meetings. This way, all group members can stay informed about the financial health of the group and make group conscience decisions about how the funds should be spent."

Prudent Reserve

"Most groups try to hold a certain amount of money in reserve. There is no predetermined amount for such a reserve, but most groups try to put aside enough money to cover at least one to three months' operating expenses. The group itself usually determines the actual size and scope of the prudent reserve. Our experience shows that an accumulation of A.A. funds for unspecified purposes beyond a prudent level may divert a group's attention from carrying the message to the alcoholic who still suffers. Groups with excess funds are encouraged to support other service entities."

Choosing a Treasurer

"The position of group treasurer is one of the most responsible positions in any A.A. group. While there is no standard length of sobriety necessary for a member to take on the position of group treasurer, many groups suggest that the treasurer should have a reasonable period of sobriety (at least six months to a year or more). It is also suggested that group treasurers be well grounded in the Twelve Traditions and be familiar with the principles and practices of the group itself."

Interview With the Author of "AA Taught Him to Handle Sobriety"

Third in a series of articles on authors of Big Book stories

I've always had a sponsor. In fact I've survived three sponsors. The one I have now is still around--it's "attitude of gratitude" Hal M. down in Washington. I'm his sponsor and he's my sponsor. I had a wonderful sponsor out here, a past delegate from Idaho, lived down in Twin Falls, a fellow named Joe C. He died five years ago. He had less sobriety than I did by ten years or more but I picked him because he was the most devoted, loving, caring AA that I'd ever met. He was taken away with galloping leukemia about thirty days after he went to the doctor. And during that time, I told him, "Joe, you've helped teach so many people how to live and now, by God, you're teaching us all how to die." And he did. He was optimistic and full of gratitude and peace and love up until the time that he died. He was still going to AA meetings two days before he died.

Do you have sponsees?

I do but I'm not a very good sponsor because I'm kind of impatient and irritable with newcomers. I always think they should do more than they do. But there are a number of people I've been able to help get started in AA, and then I turn them over to somebody else or they turn themselves over to somebody else. Part of the reason for that is that we have two homes so I don't have much real continuity with sponsees.

In thirty-three years have you noticed any great changes in the way AA is going or the way meetings are conducted?

At my last talk at the General Service Conference, I bore down heavily on the fact that the biggest enemy of AA at that time was its growing rigidity. I still think it's much more rigid than when I came in, and a hell of a lot more rigid than Bill Wilson ever envisioned it.

What would be an example of increasing rigidity?

I was particularly ticked off at that time by the rigidity of the General Service Conference itself. For example, some people were unhappy about the fact that at the end of the chapter in the Big Book "To Wives," there are two paragraphs that refer to Al-Anon for those people who want that kind of help. One man said we couldn't do that because it was affiliation. This thing was debated for an hour on the Conference floor as to whether it was proper within our Traditions to have a paragraph in the Big Book referring to Al-Anon. They finally compromised by directing that the offending mention be put in a size smaller type and moved down two inches! Really!

Speaking of the Traditions, what was your impression of Bill W.?

Well, he's so clouded now in sainthood.

Did he have any non-saint-like aspects?

Bill was a driven man and absolutely determined to get his own way. But he was always very humble and he always leaned way over backwards to give credit to everybody else. He was a great example, really. You know when he was called the founder of AA, he always insisted, "Oh no, I'm just the co-founder." And he always called the guy who carried the message to him --Ebby T. --he always called Ebby his sponsor, even though Ebby never could stay sober. But yes, he was a persistent son-of-a-gun in getting AA the way he thought it should be --for example, changing the ratio of alcoholics and nonalcoholics on the General Service Board. He fought that one for years and years and got his way in the end. Of course, I think he was right--the majority of the trustees really should be members of AA and take that responsibility.

Golf Scramble

“The Truth Will Set You Free”

This year we are holding our Twelfth Annual Weekend in SA with AA Golf Scramble Thursday, May 29, 2014.

This event will kick off our 29th Weekend in SA with AA Conference” to be held May 30 & 31, 2014 at the San Antonio Shrine Auditorium. Come join us and meet some new golfing members in San Antonio. It’s a “Scramble” format so all levels are welcome (you do not have to be a good golfer or even know how to play to participate). You do not need to be a foursome to play. The Golf pro can pair you with a partner and assign foursomes based on handicaps. Or, if you have a partner that you wish to play golf with, they will accommodate that as well.

A Note About Handicaps

If you do not know your handicap, write in your average score for 18 holes and the Golf Pro will determine it.
