Unity In The Home Group

Does our group do its fair share toward participating in the purpose of A.A.—as it relates to our Three Legacies of Recovery, Unity, and Service?

Reprint from Markings Vol 28 No. 2—Summer 2008. With permission from Alcoholics Anonymous

Q. What is the history behind A.A.'s Unity Declaration?

A. The Unity Declaration reads:

This we owe to A.A.'s future: to place our common welfare first; to keep our Fellowship united. For on A.A. unity depend our lives and the lives of those to come.

It was written for A.A.'s 35th Anniversary International Convention held in Miami Beach, Florida, in July 1970.

Documents in our collection indicate that the statement was composed as a combined effort of both the Committee on International Conventions and former A.A. trustee, Al S. The correspondence alludes to Al's involvement as a consultant in composing the statement. Al wrote the "Responsibility" Statement that had been introduced at the 1965 International Convention.

The "Unity" statement was read by delegates from different countries on Saturday night during the Unity Ceremony. Below are highlights from that night's ceremony, as led by former General Manager, Bob H.

"As you know the theme of this Conference is Unity Within Our Fellowship. We have asked several of our ex-delegates and members from overseas to be on stage and participate with us adopting our new Declaration of Unity..."

"A.A. unity is the special quality that makes our Fellowship unique. It is the cement that holds our society together, the platform which makes A.A. 'Service' possible. It is more than agreement on basic principles, more than freedom from destructive strife. It is a bond fashioned of shared experience, such as this one we share tonight."

"Unity is our most precious possession, our best guarantee of A.A.'s future. May we all value and preserve it, today and all the tomorrows to come."

Bob H. then asks all participants on stage to recite the Unity Declaration, which was led by Dr. Norris.

Following the International Convention (1973), the General Service Conference recommended that:

The Unity Declaration be added to all A.A. Literature when feasible and economical, and be referred to A.A. World Services, Inc., for follow-through.

ADOPT-A-RACK!

Be the hand that reaches out with a literature rack. One thoughtfully placed brochure could plant the seed that brings a person through the doors of AA.

The PI/CPC committee now has a cache of cool, compact 3-tier acrylic literature racks available for individuals with at least one year of sobriety or home groups who want to help "carry the message of recovery" (within our Traditions) to the general public and/or professionals who might come in contact with the still-suffering alcoholic.

Possible rack locations: medical offices; counseling centers; senior citizens centers; university dorm lounges; places of worship. Or use your imagination! Think how you first heard the message.

The first ten members or home groups who contact us will get a FREE rack -- stocked with an initial supply of brochures. After that, racks are only $10 each, including one stocking of pamphlets (customized for the placement/location).

Simply identify a possible location, make the contact, and agree to keep the rack re-stocked. For restocking, much literature is free at the Central Service Office, 8804 Tradeway. Other pamphlets are 25 cents each. The racks will include an instruction label "for refills call (the CSO #)". CSO will in turn notify the responsible party for that rack.

For information, contact Louise L. at lluther13@att.net or Michele S. at samsocpc@gmail.com.

The purpose of this meeting is to keep the groups informed of the Central Service Office activities and to allow the Central Service Office Rep to voice the opinion(s) and/or inquiries of his/her group. Reprint from The AA Grapevine, Inc.,

Interview With the Author of "AA Taught Him to Handle Sobriety"

Third in a series of articles on authors of Big Book stories

Do you use the Eleventh Step?

Every single morning when I'm running.

What do you do?

I go through everything that I have to be grateful for, and I ask God to deliver me from the bondage of self and I ask that I be of maximum service to God and my fellow man. Then I try to do the layout in my own mind of what I'm going to be doing during the day.

AA really gives us a plan for living, doesn't it?

What I've always talked about in meetings, and wrote about in the Big Book, is the fact that AA is not about stopping drinking. Anybody can stop drinking--the problem is to stay stopped. And as far as I know, the only way you do that is to change your inner self--to effect a new psychic transformation, if you will, a spiritual transformation.

In Alcoholics Anonymous we find a real reason for living and a kinship with a Higher Power and a new joy in life that we simply didn't know in our drinking days--or, in my case, even before I drank. That's what AA is all about.

The End.

SPIRITUAL EXPERIENCE

The terms "spiritual experience" and "spiritual awakening" are used many times in this book which, upon careful reading, shows that the personality change sufficient to bring about recovery from alcoholism has manifested itself among us in many different forms.

Yet it is true that our first printing gave many readers the impression that these personality changes, or religious experiences, must be in the nature of sudden and spectacular upheavals. Happily for everyone, this conclusion is erroneous.

In the first few chapters a number of sudden revolutionary changes are described. Though it was not our intention to create such an impression, many alcoholics have nevertheless concluded that in order to recover they must acquire an immediate and overwhelming "God-consciousness" followed at once by a vast change in feeling and outlook.

Among our rapidly growing membership of thousands of alcoholics such transformations, though frequent, are by no means the rule. Most of our experiences are what the psychologist William James calls the "educational variety" because they develop slowly over a period of time. Quite often friends of the newcomer are aware of the difference long before he is himself. He finally realizes that he has undergone a profound alteration in his reaction to life; that such a change could hardly have been brought about by himself alone. What often takes place in a few months could seldom have been accomplished by years of self-discipline. With few exceptions our members find that they have tapped an unsuspected inner resource which they presently identify with their own conception of a Power greater than themselves.

Most of us think this awareness of a Power greater than ourselves is the essence of spiritual experience. Our more religious members call it "God-consciousness."

Most emphatically we wish to say that any alcoholic capable of honestly facing his problems in the light of our experience can recover, provided he does not close his mind to all spiritual concepts. He can only be defeated by an attitude of intolerance or belligerent denial.

We find that no one need have difficulty with the spirituality of the program. Willingness, honesty and open mindedness are the essentials of recovery. But these are indispensable.

"There is a principle which is a bar against all information, which is proof against all arguments and which cannot fail to keep a man in everlasting ignorance—that principle is contempt prior to investigation."

—Herbert Spencer

We encourage our Groups to send a representative from their Group to hear the financials read, to hear what is happening across the city, give your group's input, and ask questions. It is nice to have CSORs that come each month on a regular basis to support the operations of the office and The Bookstore.

Currently there are about 22 groups participating monthly in the CSOR meeting.. This is good. However, your group can send a representative without their being an elected CSOR. Your Group's representative can sit in on meetings. They cannot vote if they are not your elected representative.

FULLY SELF-SUPPORTING

There are many A.A. Conferences held around the world. One of the most common misconceptions of these gatherings is that they are A.A. Meetings. Conventions and conferences are special events which require a substantial amount of money. This Conference is funded primarily through registration fees, plus contributions from individual A.A. members and A.A. Groups. The majority of these contributions are in the form of food, drinks and scholarship money. No baskets are passed. Attendance is voluntary and as responsible A.A. Members, "we pay our own way".
