Announcing the 75th Anniversary Edition of the Big Book

AA. World Services, Inc. is pleased to announce the publication of the only authorized reproduction of the first edition of Alcoholics Anonymous.

This new edition will be a faithful replica of the original, with the famous "circus cover" dust jacket and bulky paper (which is why it was initially called the Big Book).

Preorders: Starting November 15, 2013 you may preorder copies at $12.00 per copy. Delivery will occur in April 2014. After January there will be limited editions available for those who do not preorder. All preorders must be paid for at the time of the order.

Books that are to be mailed will incur shipping costs.

The cost to mail an individual book will be $4 (media mail) or $5.50 (priority/insured/tracked.)

Order your book at the Central Service Office, 8804 Tradeway, San Antonio, TX 78217.

Order by mail or telephone (210) 821-6325. Cash – Check – Credit Cards

No Matter What: Dealing With Adversity in Sobriety – GV31

New book in the store

All recovering alcoholics have had to deal with adversity throughout sobriety...a serious illness, an ugly divorce, the death of a child, the loss of a house to fire or to the bank. Despite the fear, pain or self-pity we are in when these tragedies strike, drinking is not an option. The stories in this book show how AA members use the tools of the program and embrace the Fellowship to deal with tough issues.

$12.00 at the CSO Bookstore

Telephone calls in our office on the helpline during Sept.

Calls—291
Emails— 36

The Office needs back-up volunteers. Sometimes our regular daytime volunteers need a break or get sick and we will call on our back-up volunteers to come into the CSO and answer the helpline. If this sounds like your “cup of tea” call Virginia at 821-6325.

I am responsible. When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help, I want the hand of AA always to be there. And for that: I am responsible.

Tradition Eleven (long form)

Our relations with the general public should be characterized by personal anonymity. We think A.A. ought to avoid sensational advertising. Our names and pictures as A.A. members ought not be broadcast, filmed, or publicly printed. Our public relations should be guided by the principle of attraction rather than promotion. There is never need to praise ourselves. We feel it better to let our friends recommend us.

Did you know that the long form of the Traditions is in your Twelve & Twelve on page 189?

CSOR Meeting is the Third Monday of each month at 6:00 pm at CSO

Fellowship Room - 8802-8804 Tradeway, San Antonio, TX 78217

The term of office for a group Central Service Office Rep is two (2) years; however, each group may determine the term of office for its representative. Each group may also elect an alternate Central Service Office Rep. All AA members are welcome at a Central Service Office Representative meeting.

On the agenda in November

Board of Trustee Election
Report on Family Fun Fair

The Central Service Office Rep serves as a vital link in maintaining two-way communication between the group and CSO. The Central Service Office Rep takes the responsibility for keeping the group informed on CSO matters, and provides CSO with up-dated information of a group contact name and phone number.

CSOR and their alternate are encouraged to learn more about the operations of the Central Service Office.

Each AA group elects a Central Service Office Representative who attends a monthly meeting. The purpose of this meeting is to keep the groups informed of the Central Service Office activities and to allow the Central Service Office Rep to voice the opinion(s) and/or inquiries of his/her group. To be involved in outreach activities as desired. Does your group have a CSOR?

The Forum on November 16th will give a full explanation of the duties and responsibilities of a CSOR. Bring your new CSOR to any meeting. Each Group has one vote.

Interview with the Author of "The Independent Blonde

Fifth in a series of articles on authors of Big Book stories

You knew Bill W. Did you ever go to Bill to talk?

No, no!

Why not?

I was in awe of Bill. It would be like going to God! Also I didn't think that was his job. But he was around all the time.

Did he speak at meetings a lot?

Yes, he did and he was a lousy speaker. He said so himself--he laughed at himself. He always thought it was kind of funny.

Why wasn't he a good speaker?

I don't think he was interested really. It just wasn't his main thing. He knew he wasn't any good and he didn't care and it wasn't really important to him. He always used to say, "If they want me to get sober on, they'll never get sober." He meant if you wanted Bill W. to get you sober, that's the first thing that would get you drunk.

What about meetings? Did you go to one a day?

I went to the clubhouse every day from eleven o'clock in the morning when they opened up until they closed at night. It was the only place I felt safe. It was a church and they held the meetings in the church part and then in the basement they had a card game, which I never knew. But I heard later there were very hot card games down there. You could eat at the clubhouse too--upstairs we had a restaurant. You could have coffee any time of the day and night. Eventually we went broke. I remember we had two refrigerators and we used to say that only drunks would buy two refrigerators since we only needed one. Excessive behavior cost us. We were $5,000 in debt and the landlord didn't trust us and wanted us to get out. Norman B. was a great member and he gave everybody money; he was a rich man when he came in and he gave all his money away. We had a meeting of a hundred people, and Norman got up and said, "You bunch of drunks, you've spent all the money at bars--threw it away. Now go home, search your conscience, write a check, and send it in. Let's move out of here with honor." And that's what we did.

Do you see a big difference in meetings today?

There's not as much giving and Twelfth Step work. People are busy and working harder, I guess, than we did. We seemed to have more time. But I don't know. I know we didn't get eased off alcohol as people do now in treatment centers. We went through it and I think it was a different experience in humility and suffering. You'd be getting off a drunk for days. And never be so miserable, never. I didn't know anything about pills. I never knew what a sleeping pill was. If you were not in that "set" you didn't know about drugs. I never heard of cocaine, people didn't have it in those days. So it was different. It was only alcohol. Now it's quite different. People will say, "I'm a druggie," and make some of the alcoholics mad. I think if you're suffering, you're suffering, but I don't have a strong opinion about it.

Tell us more about your early days.

I was in a women's group for many years. Marty M. had asked a woman named Elizabeth to have a women's meeting in her home, because she lived on Fifty-Eighth Street in midtown Manhattan. Elizabeth's husband was the alcoholic; she was not. For fifteen years I went there every Friday night until she gave it up.

Depository Accounts

The explanation:

This is an account set up at the Central Service Office to enable a Group to purchase items at the Bookstore without the need to send a member with money or checks to pay for Group items purchased on the day of purchase.

Through the Group's Conscience a Group may decide to deposit a given amount of money at the Bookstore. These funds are kept in a special account for the Group to be used at future dates. The Group decides on the amount to deposit, who may pick up items, and who may order items with the Group's money.

Invoices and statements are given to the Group to safeguard their funds. Funds will be returned to the Group upon request. The funds remain the property of the individual Group.

Financials are given at the monthly CSOR Meeting on the 3rd Monday of the month. We encourage our Groups to send a representative from their Group to hear the financials read, to hear what is happening across the city, and ask questions. It is nice to have CSOR's that come each month on a regular basis to support the operations of the office and The Bookstore. Currently there are about 22 Groups participating monthly. This is good. However, your group can send a representative without their being a CSOR. The representative can sit in on meetings and does not have to come each month.

Holidays and AA in San Antonio

Ask your CSOR to pick up the Holiday Meetings & Gatherings calendar at the office. There will be more Groups and more functions listed on the calendar. Let us know if your Group will have holiday functions or marathon meetings.
