CHAIRMAN'S CORNER

JULY ISSUE 2021

Do you feel a sense of awakening out there? I feel like hibernation period is over and it's time to get out there and actually experience life in all it's many facets, There's also a sense of gratitude I feel for such a wonderful fellowship to reconnect with. Yes, I kept up with my very closest AA buddies but missed so many. I recently attended the AA State Convention in Fort Worth. Traditionally about 1500 souls attend this event and I'm sure they were holding their collective breath for a break-even attendance. Last count I heard was 1390, which is almost the norm. It was also streamed live for the first time in history so many could attend virtually. Other upcoming "live" events are the Area 68 Summer Workshop, Hill Country Round Up and AA in SA. Great opportunities to experience sobriety with our friends in the fellowship.

Our groups are coming back in person in large numbers. We still need your updated information at CSO to keep the website and the Meeting Guide App current. It's a daily process of data entry. We also desperately need volunteers! Volunteers to update 12-Step call lists, speaker lists and accessibilities. The service Committees need volunteers to help carry the message of hope to the various correctional facilities, treatment facilities, community fairs and professional meetings. You can volunteer yourself, your sponsees or get your group involved in a service commitment. Nothing promotes unity like a group doing service work. I was taught to come in, sit down (that means all the way down) and get busy. I have always had a service commitment and it's kept me focused, spiritually grounded and most of all sober. Through our collective efforts we can reach a multitude of still suffering alcoholics. We can be an army in action. It's been a challenging 15 months and because of it we are experiencing the dawning of a new era with new and innovative ways to carry this message. It's exciting to see what's next. Roll up your sleeves and get involved. If you don't know where to begin, call your Central Service Office and ask how you can make a difference. Virginia or Jim will point you in the right direction and God will work wonders through you!

Responsibility Statement:

"I am responsible. When anyone, anywhere reaches out for help, I want the hand of AA always to be there. And for that, I am responsible."

Omri Russo-Board of Directors Education Liaison

Excerpts from Pamphlet 29 – “How AA Members Cooperate with Professionals”

A.A. is in competition with no one. Our ability to help other alcoholics is not based on scientific or professional expertise. As A.A.s, we are limited to sharing our own firsthand knowledge of the suffering of an alcoholic, and of recovery. A.A. members have one unique qualification for helping problem drinkers, of course — our personal experience. We have been there. But in addition to our specific A.A. function of sharing our experience, we can also cooperate with others dealing with alcoholism as long as we are guided by our Twelve Traditions. The A.A. Traditions on being self-supporting, on being nonprofessional, on avoiding controversy, and on not affiliating also suggest that A.A. members not criticize, obstruct, or hinder any other efforts to help alcoholics. We A.A. members can help best, not by passing judgments, but again simply by sharing our own personal experience.

Non-A.A. agencies and professionals are under no obligation whatever to abide by A.A.’s Traditions. The Traditions are strictly for the guidance of A.A. But it helps in more effective cooperation if such agencies and professionals can be made familiar with A.A.’s Traditions. A.A. has among its members men and women who are trained psychiatrists or physicians of other disciplines, members of the clergy, social workers, nurses, counselors, or the like. Many of these A.A.s — apart from their own personal membership in A.A. — work in non A.A. programs concerned with alcohol problems. Their professional or occupational skills and services are in no way a part of their A.A. membership. They are paid for their professional or job performance, not for what they do to stay sober in A.A.

We also cannot discriminate against any prospective A.A. member, even if he or she comes to us under pressure from a court, an employer, or any other agency. Although the strength of our program lies in the voluntary nature of membership in A.A., many of us first attended meetings because we were forced to, either by someone else or by our inner discomfort. But continual exposure to A.A. educated us to the true nature of our illness. We then developed a desire for a happy, sober life like that of other members we saw, and we attended meetings willingly and with gratitude. So, we have no right to withhold the A.A. message from anyone — no matter who referred that person to us, or what his or her attitude is at first. It is the problem drinker who is our concern. Regardless of our initial opinion of any newcomer, we cannot predict who will recover, nor have we the authority to decide how recovery should be sought by any other alcoholic.

Those of us blessed with recovery in A.A. need to remember that modesty will win more friends for A.A. than smugness, arrogance, or a know-it-all attitude. Saying “We know the only way to recovery” is an egotistical luxury we can no more afford than we can afford resentments. However, shortly after we come into A.A. and begin to recover, we naturally feel great relief. We may find ourselves praised; within A.A., we begin to build a good reputation, which gradually replaces the shame of our drinking days. This can easily turn into highly intense gratitude and loyalty to A.A. Then, almost before we know it, we may find ourselves sounding possessive and sensitive about A.A. — as if it were an exclusive society with a monopoly on the truth. As recovery continues, we recall that thousands of us received aid from families and friends, a hospital or a clinic, a physician, or a professional counselor. We realize that the boss who fired us, the relatives who scolded us, or the cop who warned us also helped us — helped us see we had a drinking problem. We begin to outgrow our defensive possessiveness. With no less devotion to A.A., but without our former fanaticism, we start to lose our fear that some non-A.A. program or professional will usurp A.A.’s role. The longer we A.A. members stay sober, the more likely it is that we will say, “Anything that works toward recovery for an alcoholic is good, and this includes hospitals, rehabilitation centers, state or provincial alcoholism centers, religion, and psychiatry — as well as A.A.” Perhaps we become more “attractive” examples of what A.A. can do, in line with our Tradition Eleven!

Accessibilities Committee

Wow we are halfway through the first year of the Accessibilities Committee in San Antonio.

The committee is busy getting things done. We have a new updated checklist to include cyber world accessibilities and other accessibilities for more current times. You can email me or CSO for the updated version. We are planning our first workshop on September 11, 2021. The committee could use you. Each Group can help out with a rep. to be responsible in collecting information about their group's accessibilities. The committee will then share that information with CSO. The more we know the better we can carry the message to the Alcoholic that may not be able to attend in a conventional way. This is a broad topic. I am happy to say we have a great group of dedicated committee members that have great ideas and we welcome all. If you or a group member is interested please join us on the 3<sup>Rd</sup> Sunday of each month @ 2:00PM-3:00PM . Zoom Meeting ID 850 2279 6272 Passcode 496791. We sincerely look forward to seeing you there.

Inter Service Report

Service Work is thriving in San Antonio. Here's what committees are up to:

Accessibilities

We will be hosting a workshop during Weekend in SA October 9th. We meet on the third Sunday of each month at 2pm on Zoom. We are still asking for groups to send Accessibilities Representative and are delighted. We have created an updated Accessibility Checklist for groups. Pick one up at the Central Service Office or email SAInterservice@gmail.com. Sober over Sixty is making us a trifold display, and we will be filling it with pamphlets to display at local events.

Archives

We had a wonderful Oral History training last month. The next training will be September 12th, online. We meet on the first Thursday at 6pm. We are still online, but might be going to an in-person meeting soon. We are putting together tributes to the members we lost during the pandemic.

Corrections

As things open up, there are more opportunities to carry the message to incarcerated alcoholics. Volunteers are needed, male and female. We are still working on making recordings of AA literature to be read at meetings inside correctional facilities. We are careful to preserve anonymity. We are also sharing the recordings with Treatment Facility committees. TDCJ volunteer training is still available online currently.

Grapevine/LaVina

Is now holding hybrid meetings, either in person or virtual at St. Francis Episcopal Church on the fourth Sunday of each month at 1 pm . We have a cookout scheduled for August 14th from 10:30 to 1 pm. It will be family friendly. Look for upcoming fliers. On August 28th 2pm-4:30 we are holding an in-person Grapevine writing workshop, with prizes, snacks and drinks provided. The Grapevine Committee will elect new officers this coming October.

National AA Archives Workshop: The National AA Archives Workshop will be held in San Antonio this year September 30-October 3. There will be many fun events. Registration is now open. 2021NAAAW.org. To volunteer for hospitality, e-mail 2021archivesworkshop@gmail.com

Public Information/ Cooperation with the Professional Community

We had a positive interaction with San Antonio Express News last month about a series they are doing on drunk driving. We continue to be active in DWI court. We will have a presentation coming up to medical professionals at the end of August. We are looking for knowledgeable people to be a panelist. We will be working with Haven for Hope and Lifetime Recovery on, We meet the fourth Sunday of every month at 12:30. Meetings will be virtual until at least September.

Treatment Facilities: We bring AA meetings to Laurel Ridge at 7 pm on weeknights. We also bring meetings to specifically active duty military members. There are many more opportunities to carry the message coming up as everything continues to open up.
