GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING
MINUTES FOR MARCH 21, 1993

The meeting was called to order at 5:45 p.m. with the Serenity Prayer lead by Knut H., Chairman. Raymond F. read the Traditions. The check-in sheet was passed around and three new COR's were included in the 43 persons present.

The minutes of the February meeting were accepted as printed in the NIGHTCAP. Joe C. explained the financial report and answered questions regarding same. A motion was made, seconded, and passed to accept the report as given. Bonnie R. gave the CSO report which included 1492 copies of the newsletter mailed, 123 reminder cards mailed to DCMs, COR's, etc, Arley H., Convention Chairman, reported on the progress being made followed by his committee chairmen statements: Mary S. asked for food and/or money donations from the groups for the hospitality room; Renee Z. explained that scholarships need to be obtained through the GSR's and that AA members can work at various jobs in exchange for admission. Denise explained the raffle and encouraged ticket sales. First drawing will be held on April 6 at CSO. Bill T. reminded everyone to read information on parking shown on the fliers and on parking meters at the convention. Jim W. said the convention needs to be mentioned at meetings more often. Arley said over 200 persons are pre-registered and $3,000 has been collected.

After hours telephone volunteers were requested and obtained, as shown below.

Old Business: The question was asked--is there a need for CSO to be open on Saturday? Several groups reported no interest, some suggested staying open later during the week. Another said they could fill their needs by mail.

New Business: Requested three members for the nominating committee. Knut asked for members for the nominating committee from the COR's. The COR's said many of them did not know each other, outside of this meeting. No action taken and this will be carried over next month. It was explained that charge accounts are available to groups and districts. These are 30-day accounts, no interest, and $50 limit.

What's on your mind? This brought forth questions about phone duty being split differently. It was explained that it can but each group needs to be very clear about the hours that each member has signed up for.

Announcements: Mike from the Goliad Group and Marguerite from Group 12 both announced fund raisers for scholarships for Weekend in SA convention.

The next meeting will be held on Sunday, April 18 at 5:30 p.m. The meeting was adjourned at 6:35 p.m. with the Lord's Prayer.

Respectfully submitted, Bonnie R., Secretary

TRANSPLANTED TO SAN ANTONIO

Thank you, San Antonio AA, for making me feel so welcome since I moved here from Dallas last fall. My sobriety date is Aug. 1, 1970, and I get to about five meetings each week, which is about what I was doing before my stroke last October. I feel especially blessed that I can still participate in AA meetings. Now for the real reason for this letter: There may be other AA members who are also stroke victims. They may be residing in convalescent or nursing homes and would appreciate a visit. I want to make myself available to visit these AAs, whenever I can, in order to share with them that there is still action for any AA even though they may be wheelchair bound.

If you know of a fellow member who is also a stroke victim, please call the Central Service Office and they will contact me.

Nancy H.

CAN'T GET ANY BETTER THAN JUST HUMAN

The only function of AA, its steps, its sponsors, its actions, and its involvement are not to make you wonderful. They're to do something infinitely more complex. They are to upgrade your perception of reality. I've got to look at the same things and over a period of time see them differently or they get so depressing I can't handle it. Unfortunately for you and me, no matter how one works the program, we will never rise above a basic human. And, human beings are weak, fearful, fallible, cross, and emotional--no matter how spiritual we become.

Clancy I., "Hello Central"

That drunk might have been as bewildered as the Army doctor on a South Pacific island. Young and inexperienced, he was confronted with an illness he didn't know how to treat, so he sent a message to headquarters: "What should I do with a case of beriberi?"

The answer came back: "Give it to the Marines. They'll drink anything."

The Fifth Tradition

*Each group has but one primary purpose
... to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.*

Every newcomer learns (some of us the hard way) that the business of staying sober must have top priority. If we fail at that, we can't succeed at anything else. The Fifth Tradition tells us that groups should remember their "one primary purpose."

Often, unthinking enthusiasm puts a group off the main track. One, for instance, offered an "expanded A.A. program" that included helping newcomers to find jobs. Tradition Five doesn't frown on the individual A.A. who tells another about a good opening. But when the group turns itself into an employment agency, newcomers may get confused about their primary purpose. A.A.'s function is to help them get sober—then they can find work for themselves.

Using discretion, a member may lend a few dollars needed for a meal or a hotel room, or may even invite a broke alcoholic to be a temporary houseguest. But the A.A. group as a whole is not a friendly finance company, nor a welfare department, nor a housing bureau.

Even when acting on their own, as individual members, A.A. lay people certainly shouldn't award themselves honorary medical degrees and hand out diagnoses and prescriptions and amateur analyses of other people's neuroses. Exactly because this personal failing is so common, the A.A. group in all its dealings should be extra careful to emphasize that it is not invading the medical field. Through the personal experiences of its members, it is qualified to carry only one message: how an alcoholic can recover in A.A. That's all.

Yet one group recently felt itself equipped to set up an "alcoholism information center." The temptation is understandable; it was even stronger at the time this Tradition was written, because public ignorance about alcoholism as an illness was more widespread than it is now. Since then, other agencies have sprung up to assume the task of educating the general public on alcoholism. That is not A.A.'s purpose, but these agencies also are trying to help the active alcoholic. They are our friends—and Tradition Six marks the boundaries of the relationship. . . .

No matter how different

personal concerns,

we are all bound together

by one common RESPONSIBILITY

... to carry the message to the suffering alcoholic.

The Twelfth Tradition

Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our Traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.

Let us always remember that anonymity—not taking credit for our own or others' recovery—is humility at work.

Anonymity, as we observe it in A.A., is at root a simple expression of humility. When we use the Twelve Steps to recover from alcoholism, we are each trying to achieve real humility, to put our self-respect on a solid base of truth, rather than on fantasies about ourselves. When we use the Twelve Traditions to work together in A.A., we are all trying to achieve humility: as individual members, by recognizing our true place in A.A.; as a fellowship, by recognizing A.A.'s true place in the world.

Tradition One reminds each of us that we are not recovering on our own, that we should control our personal desires and ambitions in order to guard the unity of our group and our Fellowship. We ought not (Tradition Two) fancy ourselves as big shots in A.A., no matter what office we hold.

All of us are just alcoholics together, and in our groups we are not entitled (Tradition Three) to rule on the qualifications of other alcoholics seeking the same help that we've had. Yes, a group needs humility, too. It may make its name public, but in the spirit of anonymity it should see the Whatever Group as merely part of a bigger whole (Tradition Four), careful in every enterprise to consider the welfare of all the other groups that make up A.A. In both group and individual activities, we should remember what the full name of our Fellowship is. It does not represent any established religion, nor is it a new religion. We are not evangelists or gurus out to save humanity; we are anonymous alcoholics trying to help other alcoholics (Tradition Five).

In the rising battle against alcoholism, we ought not let our pride in A.A. mislead us into linking our Fellowship with other agencies, in order to bid for a share in their power, prestige, and funds. If we keep Traditions Six and Seven in mind, we will instead direct all our efforts toward A.A.'s own unique purpose.

When we go on Twelfth Step calls, we should not tell ourselves how noble we are for doing such valuable work without pay. The meaning of Twelfth Step work cannot be measured in money (Tradition Eight), and we have received advance pay for it, in coin of far greater worth—our very lives. In the same Tradition, it's suggested that a service center maintains A.A. humility by paying its employees decent wages—rather than considering A.A. so virtuous an outfit that employment there is a favor.

When we are given special responsibilities within A.A., Tradition Nine defines these as opportunities to serve, not titles to flaunt. The humility of the Fellowship itself is safeguarded by Tradition Ten, with the refusal to set ourselves up as general authorities, swinging our collective weight around in the public arena.

We do not want to sell our program as a "surefire remedy" in the extravagant terms of a promotional campaign (Tradition Eleven), nor dramatize it by identifying noted people in A.A., thereby implying that recovery has been for each of us an individual accomplishment. As Tradition Twelve reminds us, we have something stronger than our human personalities to rely on. Our principles come first—and they are not our own invention. They reflect eternal spiritual values. With this Tradition, both as individuals and as a fellowship, we humbly acknowledge our dependence on a power higher than ourselves.

NEW GROUPS+MEETINGS+CHANGES
