The greatest way to appreciate your sobriety is to imagine yourself without it.

The meeting was opened at 5:35 pm by Erik C. in the absence of Dee S. Renee and Betty Z. were also absent.

Erik led the Serenity Prayer and Lou Ann read the traditions. Al D. read the COR guidelines.

New CORs were: Nancy - Universal City Group

Joe C. passed out the CSO questionnaire. It dealt with improved communication and service at CSO.

The previous meetings' minutes were accepted as printed in the Nightcap.

Financial Report: Joe C. went over the financial statement. The only question raised was the shirts from the convention as income. Suggestions for a solution to the deficit were taken, eg., charging for the Nightcap. Julie mentioned Nightcap contributions were down since the map was on the back. Chris asked that charging for the Nightcap be put on the Board of Trustees' agenda.

CSO report: Bonnie - no comment.

Interdistrict report: Erik reported that the Interdistrict Chair has rotated. Gene P. is the new Chairman. Interdistrict will be discussing the funding for archive displays.

Phone Duty: Raymond F. read the item in the Nightcap by Jim B. and called for volunteers (see list). Lylas W. asked groups to bring in sign up sheets on time and to keep the folders clean.

Old Business: Erik read the bylaws as they are now, and the proposed revisions. There was some discussion. Knut H. asked why we should eliminate the DCM's. Joe C. said they didn't attend anyway. Many questions were asked and more discussion followed. Knut made the motion: The Board present, in writing, the rationale for the amendment. The motion passed with two opposed.

New business: Richard C. announced that the nominating committee needed eight nominees. One person resigned from the committee. Knut will take his place.

As the meeting was running overtime, the motion was made to close with the Lord's Prayer.

The Eighth Tradition
Alcoholics Anonymous should remain forever nonprofessional, but our service centers may employ special workers.

Spiritual as it is, A.A. remains very much of this world. The Eighth Tradition, like the Seventh, focuses on a vulgar five-letter word that isn't actually mentioned in either: money. Many of us have had to explain to some cynical prospect, "No, I'm not a social worker. I don't get paid for talking with you. I'm doing it because it's the best way to stay sober myself."

This does not mean, of course, that the idea of turning professional has never entered any A.A.'s mind. In the lean years, Bill W. did think of becoming a lay therapist to earn money through his experience in helping alcoholics. But, with a strong nudge from the group conscience, he soon realized that he could never hang out a shingle reading "Bill W., A.A. Therapist, $10 an Hour"! It became clear to the early members that no A.A. should ever ask or accept payment for "carrying this message to somebody else, person to person and face to face."

But new questions arose as membership grew and the word of hope spread, sending thousands of alcoholics in search of A.A. The first intergroups or central offices were usually manned by A.A. volunteers; now, most such offices are so busy that full-time employees are needed as well. Naturally, A.A.'s are better suited to such jobs than are nonmembers—but are these A.A.'s then being paid for doing Twelfth Step work? No. In the office, they are just paving the way for this work. Arranging to get a sick drunk into a hospital, telling a shaky newcomer where the nearest meeting is tonight, they are helping to make it possible for that alcoholic to hear the message "person to person and face to face."

A similar development has taken place at the Fellowship's "headquarters." Once a tiny office for one co-founder (Bill) and one secretary, it has grown into the present General Service Office, fully staffed, with a big mailroom keeping the lines of communication open throughout A.A. worldwide. The employees, both A.A. and nonalcoholic, are paid on a scale comparable to that in profit-making enterprises, so that the office force can function dependably. And the A.A. staff members are in exactly the same position as the A.A. intergroup employees. Suppose you drop in at G.S.O. one day when you're in New York. Staff members who pause to chat with you may have been working on next year's Conference or corresponding with a group in your home area, helping it to carry the message more effectively. For that, they are paid with biweekly checks. But you may also hear them mention to other staff members plans for taking a newcomer to a meeting in the evening or for giving an A.A. talk to a neighborhood group the next week. For that, they are paid only with their own continuing sobriety.

In these office jobs and in other assignments, members are actually paid for their business and professional skills. Working at a G.S.O. desk, on Conference-approved books and pamphlets, or on the Grapevine, these A.A.'s use their abilities as correspondents, managers, writers, editors, artists, proofreaders—as well as their understanding of A.A. from the inside. On occasion, volunteers have given their time and talent to all these services, and their contributions are deeply appreciated. But what if the Fellowship decided that all such assignments should be handled only by unpaid volunteers? In present-day A.A., there's too great a volume of work to be done in spare hours here and there, and only the rich or the retired could afford to work full-time. If we tried to find in this limited group people qualified for particular tasks, obviously the field would be narrowed down—too often, down to nobody at all.

There would be another problem in using volunteers alone: It seems ungrateful—or, at least, it's socially awkward—to criticize or reject a job done for free. But paid jobs for A.A. get quite a going-over! Take our literature, for instance (like this pamphlet). Whatever the subject, we want to be sure that each piece expresses as clearly as possible the view of the group conscience of A.A. as a whole. So any new project must first be approved by the Conference. Once it is in process, the Literature Committee of the General Service Board keeps a careful eye on it at every stage. Frequently, drastic changes are required. The "finished" product then must be okayed both by that committee and by the Conference Literature Committee, and further revisions are often—

"Now wait a minute!" some old-timer may interrupt. "What's going on here? Didn't Dr. Bob say, 'Let's keep it simple?'" ...

THE SPIRITUAL ANGLE

How often do we sit in AA speaker meetings and hear the speaker declare, "But I haven't yet got the spiritual angle." Prior to this statement, he has described a miracle of transformation which has occurred in him - not only his release from alcohol, but a complete change in his whole attitude toward life and the living of it.

It is apparent to everyone else present that he has received a great gift, and that this gift is all out of proportion to anything that may be expected from simple AA participation. So we in the audience smile and say to ourselves, "Well, that guy is just reeking with the spiritual angle - except that he doesn't seem to know it yet!"
