HOW CUSTOMS GET STARTED IN AA

Our group celebrates birthdays on the last Tuesday of every month. One of the members always bakes a cake for the group but this birthday night, he was pressed for time so he grabbed three jars of homemade pickles and brought them to the meeting. Several newcomers were overheard to say they would be back next week to get some more of those delicious pickles.

I know what is going to happen. Someone is going to ask, "Where are the pickles?" The group will start having pickles at every meeting. And, this practice will spread throughout the AA world!

Fifty years from now someone is going to ask, "How did the pickle custom get started?" It will be credited to either someone's obituary, St. Francis, Dr. Reinhold Niebuhr, Southern California, or someone named Clancy. Actually, Ray started it!

A word to the wise: INVEST IN PICKLES!!

JEWELS FROM THE JAIL

Did I tell you about the year I practiced simplicity and gave the children dental floss for Christmas?

Speaking of simplicity...something that began very simply has become magnificent! Vickie S. was on furlough from TDC due to a death in her family and made her first "free world" meeting at the Goliad. Lynn went to TDC on Saturday, getting up at a brisk 4 a.m. The message she received was far greater than the one carried. The ladies at TDC asked about members they had met at the county jail meetings. One lady wanted to know if "that woman had sold her daughter to the Arabs yet." One lady asked about the woman with the purple hair! They do get the message--simply speaking.

Join us at the jail!

Lynn and Karla

The Twelfth Tradition

Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our Traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.

Let us always remember that anonymity—not taking credit for our own or others' recovery—is humility at work.

Anonymity, as we observe it in A.A., is at root a simple expression of humility. When we use the Twelve Steps to recover from alcoholism, we are each trying to achieve real humility, to put our self-respect on a solid base of truth, rather than on fantasies about ourselves. When we use the Twelve Traditions to work together in A.A., we are all trying to achieve humility: as individual members, by recognizing our true place in A.A.; as a fellowship, by recognizing A.A.'s true place in the world.

Tradition One reminds each of us that we are not recovering on our own, that we should control our personal desires and ambitions in order to guard the unity of our group and our Fellowship. We ought not (Tradition Two) fancy ourselves as big shots in A.A., no matter what office we hold.

All of us are just alcoholics together, and in our groups we are not entitled (Tradition Three) to rule on the qualifications of other alcoholics seeking the same help that we've had. Yes, a group needs humility, too. It may make its name public, but in the spirit of anonymity it should see the Whatever Group as merely part of a bigger whole (Tradition Four), careful in every enterprise to consider the welfare of all the other groups that make up A.A. In both group and individual activities, we should remember what the full name of our Fellowship is. It does not represent any established religion, nor is it a new religion. We are not evangelists or gurus out to save humanity; we are anonymous alcoholics trying to help other alcoholics (Tradition Five).

In the rising battle against alcoholism, we ought not let our pride in A.A. mislead us into linking our Fellowship with other agencies, in order to bid for a share in their power, prestige, and funds. If we keep Traditions Six and Seven in mind, we will instead direct all our efforts toward A.A.'s own unique purpose.

When we go on Twelfth Step calls, we should not tell ourselves how noble we are for doing such valuable work without pay. The meaning of Twelfth Step work cannot be measured in money (Tradition Eight), and we have received advance pay for it, in coin of far greater worth—our very lives. In the same Tradition, it's suggested that a service center maintains A.A. humility by paying its employees decent wages—rather than considering A.A. so virtuous an outfit that employment there is a favor.

When we are given special responsibilities within A.A., Tradition Nine defines these as opportunities to serve, not titles to flaunt. The humility of the Fellowship itself is safeguarded by Tradition Ten, with the refusal to set ourselves up as general authorities, swinging our collective weight around in the public arena.

We do not want to sell our program as a "surefire remedy" in the extravagant terms of a promotional campaign (Tradition Eleven), nor dramatize it by identifying noted people in A.A., thereby implying that recovery has been for each of us an individual accomplishment. As Tradition Twelve reminds us, we have something stronger than our human personalities to rely on. Our principles come first—and they are not our own invention. They reflect eternal spiritual values. With this Tradition, both as individuals and as a fellowship, we humbly acknowledge our dependence on a power higher than ourselves.

THE PROGRAM DOES WORK!
 Prior to joining AA, this lady never hesitated to go into the lowest gin mill to cage drinks. Now that she has joined AA, made a down payment on a car, she has a bumper sticker affixed that reads: "Life is too short to dance with ugly men."

I WILL NOT DRINK THAT BEER...
 I QUIT... I WILL NOT DRINK THAT BEER... UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL I DRINK THAT BEER!!

"HE SPECIALIZES IN RESCUING A.A. MEMBERS"

A.A.
 doesn't teach us how to handle our drinking. It teaches us how to handle our sobriety — which is what none of us could handle in the first place, and that's why we drank.
