GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING

MINUTES

November 18, 1990

The meeting was called to order at 6:30 p.m. by Bob T., Chairman, with a moment of silence followed by the Serenity Prayer. The twelve traditions were read by Dave. There were 52 persons present, including three new GSR's and one Alternate GSR. After the "Statement of Participation" was read, the minutes of the previous meeting were accepted as printed in the November issue of THE NIGHTCAP. The check-in list was circulated. In the absence of Al D., Dee S. presented the financial report for CSO. Volunteers for After-Hours Phone Duty were obtained (see list below). Eileen, Chairman for H&I, asked for volunteers to carry the message to various Hospitals and Institutions (see list below). Don N., Chairman for PI Committee, introduced Fred D. who is working with the Brady Green project. Fred asked for volunteers to be interviewed by third-year medical students who are learning to recognize symptoms of alcoholism. GSR's were requested to tell groups about the program and sign up volunteers. This project is done about every 6 weeks and is from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Don N. reported that this week his committee is scheduled to go to Holmes High School, Our Lady of the Lake College, and Kitty Hawk Jr. High. Flynn J., Chairman for Jail Committee, reported that he still needs volunteers to help take meetings to the jail. Any one wanting to volunteer may call CSO and leave their name and phone number. Bill T., Chairman for Convention Committee, reported that the theme for weekend in SA, 1991 is "Trudging the Road of Happy Destiny" and that 3 AA speakers have been selected and one Al-Ateen speaker is scheduled. Volunteers are needed for all jobs; any one wanting to volunteer, call Bill at 828-7965.

OLD BUSINESS: Bob thanked Tom McM. and his nominating committee for all their work and asked DCM's to hand out ballots for election. All nominees were asked to stand and introduce themselves. After votes were counted, the four new trustees are as follows: Nick C., Rudy F., John F., and Jan T.

NEW BUSINESS: Mary O., Assistant Manager, CSO, introduced the new and revised edition of GSO's pamphlet P-16, The AA Group, and recommended anyone starting a new group or meeting to purchase one. Jim B., Alternate Area Delegate, discussed the bid presentation for the International Convention to be held in the year 2000. San Antonio is qualified to have it and he needed approval from the general membership; also asked for $10 donation from each group to be used for the presentation. Nick C. moved that the general membership endorse his request, it was seconded and motion unanimously accepted. The $10 donations should be sent to SWTX Area Treasurer and marked for Year 2000. Darrell B. GSR for Colonies North Group, suggested that groups and meetings having handicap facilities, advise CSO so this information can be added to the meeting directory.

CSO REPORT: 1517 copies of THE NIGHTCAP were mailed for November and 25 returned; reminder cards were sent to GSR's and others, for General Membership Meeting; CSO received 1,151 telephone calls during October. AAMS notified CSO that literature prices will not go up on 1-1-91 as previously advised.

DCM REPORT: Yolanda F., DCM District 1-F, reported that the November 10 meeting had 18 attendees. She also announced that the SWTX Area Workshop scheduled for Jan 12 and 13 will be held in Kerrville; District 1-A is having Thanksgiving Dinner at the Winner's Club on the 22nd; District 1-F is trying to start a Spanish speaking meeting at Charter Real Hospital.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Jan T. will resign as secretary to the GMM at the end of the year; the Wed. 11 a.m. meeting held in room 30218, in the Humanities Bldg at UTSA, is an open meeting; however, this meeting will not be held when school is not in session. There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 7:45 with Lord's Prayer. Respectfully submitted, Jan T., Secretary

The Twelfth Tradition

Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our Traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.

Let us always remember that anonymity—not taking credit for our own or others' recovery—is humility at work.

Anonymity, as we observe it in A.A., is at root a simple expression of humility. When we use the Twelve Steps to recover from alcoholism, we are each trying to achieve real humility, to put our self-respect on a solid base of truth, rather than on fantasies about ourselves. When we use the Twelve Traditions to work together in A.A., we are all trying to achieve humility: as individual members, by recognizing our true place in A.A.; as a fellowship, by recognizing A.A.'s true place in the world.

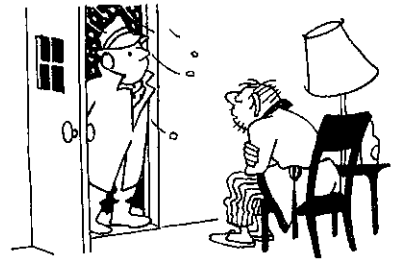

Tradition One reminds each of us that we are not recovering on our own, that we should control our personal desires and ambitions in order to guard the unity of our group and our Fellowship. We ought not (Tradition Two) fancy ourselves as big shots in A.A., no matter what office we hold.

All of us are just alcoholics together, and in our groups we are not entitled (Tradition Three) to rule on the qualifications of other alcoholics seeking the same help that we've had. Yes, a group needs humility, too. It may make its name public, but in the spirit of anonymity it should see the Whatever Group as merely part of a bigger whole (Tradition Four), careful in every enterprise to consider the welfare of all the other groups that make up A.A. In both group and individual activities, we should remember what the full name of our Fellowship is. It does not represent any established religion, nor is it a new religion. We are not evangelists or gurus out to save humanity; we are anonymous alcoholics trying to help other alcoholics (Tradition Five).

In the rising battle against alcoholism, we ought not let our pride in A.A. mislead us into linking our Fellowship with other agencies, in order to bid for a share in their power, prestige, and funds. If we keep Traditions Six and Seven in mind, we will instead direct all our efforts toward A.A.'s own unique purpose.

When we go on Twelfth Step calls, we should not tell ourselves how noble we are for doing such valuable work without pay. The meaning of Twelfth Step work cannot be measured in money (Tradition Eight), and we have received advance pay for it, in coin of far greater worth—our very lives. In the same Tradition, it's suggested that a service center maintains A.A. humility by paying its employees decent wages—rather than considering A.A. so virtuous an outfit that employment there is a favor.

When we are given special responsibilities within A.A., Tradition Nine defines these as opportunities to serve, not titles to flaunt. The humility of the Fellowship itself is safeguarded by Tradition Ten, with the refusal to set ourselves up as general authorities, swinging our collective weight around in the public arena.

We do not want to sell our program as a "surefire remedy" in the extravagant terms of a promotional campaign (Tradition Eleven), nor dramatize it by identifying noted people in A.A., thereby implying that recovery has been for each of us an individual accomplishment. As Tradition Twelve reminds us, we have something stronger than our human personalities to rely on. Our principles come first—and they are not our own invention. They reflect eternal spiritual values. With this Tradition, both as individuals and as a fellowship, we humbly acknowledge our dependence on a power higher than ourselves.
