TRAVELING ON OUR STOMACH

Last September, I attended the AAWS/ Intergroup Seminar in Memphis, TN. We were there, from the U.S. and Canada, 200 strong. Managers came from large CSOs with more than 320 groups to serve down to one office that calls a 9x12 foot church basement "home."

I came away feeling that if CSOs were graded, we'd score a B+. We're incorporated now, pay our taxes on time, and even have a nifty computer to keep our records straight. With our many diversifications, we all had financial concerns; and GSO did not exclude themselves. AA is growing by leaps, and our collective hands stretch literally across the world, like an army out to solve a global problem with the simple tools of honesty, love, and service.

The only matter I propose you consider now are the funds needed to do the job. In 1960, the cost of a pack of cigarettes was 25¢, gasoline was 19¢ to 22¢ per gallon--an AA basket contribution averaged $1.00.

In 1980, cigarettes cost $1.40 a pack, gas could be bought for 90¢ per gallon --an AA basket contribution averaged $1.00.

In 1990, smokes cost $2.00 per pack and gasoline rose to an average of $1.10 a gallon--an AA basket contribution averaged $1.00.*

Webster's New World Dictionary lists a "donation" as a gift to a charitable organization. A "contribution" is defined as a "tax" for a special purpose, "as for supporting an army in the field." Wasn't it Napoleon who said, "An army travels on it's stomach." How do you suppose he paid for the groceries?

If you can, please increase your AA basket contribution and monitor how your group monies are dispersed.

LETTER TO EDITOR

Greetings from Cairo! Nine years ago last night I attended my first AA meeting, drunk with my pants on backwards, at the Goliad Group in San Antonio. Today, I got my copy of THE NIGHTCAP in the mail. I will pass it on at the meeting tonight in Maadi. A couple of us are going out to celebrate after the meeting. I find God's timing to be special--I got my NIGHTCAP on my birthday! Really need it today too!

I want to thank all who helped me in the past 9 years--AA in America is really special. I say that because there is so much opportunity for AA company in the USA. Here in Cairo, there are approximately 20 AA members in a city of almost 20 million population. Makes for a close-knit family. It takes an hour to get to some meetings, plus cab fare, but it's worth it!!

Last night a Canadian fellow drove 3 hours just to make a meeting as there is none in the area where he lives. Makes you kind of appreciate an hour's ride, doesn't it?

Our group is made up of Canadians, Americans, Englishmen, Africans, and Egyptians--we close our meetings with the Serenity Prayer. The program and the message is still the same--Thank God (Allah!). I've had three late night phone calls from two drunks, so far. I love it!

I'm getting teary but it's okay to feel special tears of gratitude today. Love to all--please write--letters are important!

Concept XII

General Warranties of the Conference: in all its proceedings, the General Service Conference shall observe the spirit of the A.A. Tradition, taking great care that the conference never becomes the seat of perilous wealth or power; that sufficient operating funds, plus an ample reserve, be its prudent financial principle; that none of the Conference Members shall ever be placed in a position of unqualified authority over any of the others; that all important decisions be reached by discussion vote and whenever possible, by substantial unanimity; that no Conference action ever be personally punitive or an incitement to public controversy; that though the Conference may act for the service of Alcoholics Anonymous, it shall never perform any acts of government; and that, like the Society of Alcoholics Anonymous which it serves, the Conference itself will always remain democratic in thought and action.

This Concept consists of the General Warranties of the General Service Conference. It is cast in stone; that is, although Bill leaves the door open for alterations and changes in the other Concepts and points out that the rest of the Conference Charter "can be readily amended," these General Warranties—like the Twelve Steps and the Twelve Traditions—can be changed only by "written consent of three-quarters of all A.A. groups" in the world!

Why?
Because "these Warranties indicate the qualities of prudence and spirituality which the Conference should always possess.... These are the permanent bonds that hold the Conference fast to the movement it serves."

The Warranties also express spiritual principles which apply to all other A.A. entities as well. Let us, then, consider these principles one by one:

Warranty One: "The Conference shall never become the seat of perilous wealth or power." The Seventh Tradition protects us against the accumulation of too much money. So long as we refuse to take outside contributions and limit individual member's donations, "we shall not become wealthy in any perilous sense." And if we live by Tradition Two—that "our ultimate authority is a loving God" and that "our leaders are but trusted servants: they do not govern"—then we are safe from perilous power.

Warranty Two: "Sufficient operating funds, plus an ample Reserve, should be its prudent financial principle." Although many of us as active alcoholics were free spenders, when it comes to supporting "A.A. service overhead, we are apt to turn a bit reluctant." Yet, in A.A. the cost of the service office is relatively low in terms of the number of groups served, and if the need for support is made clear, the contributions are forthcoming. The Reserve Fund should be one full year's operating expenses of the G.S.O. and the Grapevine. The Reserve Fund comes almost entirely from income from the sale of A.A. literature, which also is used to make up the deficit between group contributions and the cost of group services.

Warranty Three: "None of the Conference members shall ever be placed in a position of unqualified authority over any of the others." This principle is discussed earlier in Concept IV, but "it is so important, we have made it the subject of this

Warranty—a "strong stand against the creation of unqualified authority at any point in our Conference structure."

Warranty Four: "That all important decisions should be reached by discussion, vote, and wherever possible, by substantial unanimity." This Warranty is, on the one hand, "a safeguard against any hasty or overbearing authority of a simple majority; and, on the other hand, it takes notice of the rights and the frequent wisdom of minorities, however small. This principle guarantees that all matters of importance, time permitting, will be extensively debated, and that such debates will continue until a really heavy majority can support every critical decision."

Warranty Five: "That no Conference action shall ever be personally punitive or an incitement to public controversy." Although practically all other societies and governments find it necessary to punish individual members for violations of their beliefs, principles or laws, Alcoholics Anonymous finds this practice unnecessary.

When we fail to follow sound spiritual principles, alcohol cuts us down. No humanly administered system of penalties is needed. This unique condition is an enormous advantage to us all, one on which we can fully rely and one which we should never abandon by resorting to personal attack and punishment. Of all societies, ours can least afford to risk the resentments and conflicts which would result were we ever to yield to the temptation to punish in anger.

For much the same reason, we cannot and should not enter into public controversy, even in self-defense. Our experience has shown that, providentially, A.A. has been made exempt from the need to quarrel with anyone, no matter what the provocation. Nothing could be more damaging to our unity and to the worldwide goodwill which A.A. enjoys, than public contention, no matter how promising the immediate dividends might appear.

Some situations which may require Conference consideration are:

A.A. may come under "sharp public attack or heavy ridicule"—perhaps "with little or no justification in fact. Our best defense in these situations would be no defense whatever—namely, complete silence at the public level. If the criticism of A.A. is partly or wholly justified, it may be well to acknowledge this privately to the critics—with our thanks."

Public violations of A.A. Traditions. Our own members may try to use the A.A. name for their private purposes. "Aggressive or punitive action, even in this area, must be omitted. Privately, we can inform Tradition-violators that they are out of order. When they persist, we can use such other resources of persuasion as we have. In the long run, though, we shall have to rely mainly on the pressures of A.A. opinion and public opinion."

"Another kind of problem is the severe internal disagreement that comes to unwelcome public attention." As G.S.O. "is not a police operation," we can only offer A.A.'s experience as a matter of information.

Warranty Six: "That though the Conference may act for the service of Alcoholics Anonymous, it shall never perform any acts of government; and that, like the Society of Alcoholics Anonymous which it serves, the Conference itself will always remain democratic in thought and action."

The A.A. Traditions accord the individual member and the A.A. group extraordinary liberties. In fact, we A.A.s probably enjoy more and greater freedoms than any Fellowship in the world. We claim this as no virtue. We know we have to choose conformity to A.A.'s Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions or else face dissolution and death.

"Because we set such a high value on our great liberties and cannot conceive that they will need to be limited, we here specially enjoin our General Service Conference to abstain completely from any and all acts of authoritative government which could in any way curtail A.A.'s freedom under God. We expect our Conference always to try to act in the spirit of mutual respect and love—one member to another."

"Freedom under God to grow in His likeness and image will ever be the quest of Alcoholics Anonymous. May our General Service Conference be always seen as a chief symbol of this cherished liberty."
