VOLUME TWO

NOVEMBER 1951

NUMBER TWO

God grant me the Serenity
To accept things I cannot change;
Courage to change things I can,
And Wisdom to know the difference.

THE NIGHTCAP, with this issue, has passed its first birthday. No mention was made of the fact in the last issue, probably because of the hustle, bustle and excitement of the South Texas Regional A. A. Conference held at the Plaza Hotel just at edition time. But the significance is plain: In all likelihood your subscription has expired, and we hope you will see fit to renew it.

In the first issue of The Nightcap, which was published in September, 1950, you were told that The Nightcap is published under the auspices of the Central Committee, that all monies would be held by the Central Committee, that no one would be paid for time or effort in connection with its production * * * "The labor involved is a labor of love."

So you have a decision to make: Shall you continue The Nightcap by renewing your subscription, or shall it fold for lack of your support?

Beginning with the January, 1952 issue and for each issue of that year, an interpretation of the Twelve Steps, taken seriatim, will be written by "our" inimitable Sam McC. The editor pauses here to again thank Sam for so graciously agreeing to assume this task. This is just a peep at the many good things in store for The Nightcap subscribers during the next twelve months.

This issue is edited by a brand new editor who will try to keep you informed of the doings in the San Antonio Area and incidentally give you some good reading material.

Here, for your convenience, is a blank you may fill out for your subscription. Or just call Doc at Fannin 2523 and tell him to start or renew your subscription and you'll pay him next time you see him. Doc'll be happy enough about that.
